Appearing To The Scene

Solo album by Antora Huda comes out

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

THE main reason for which many talents remain hidden is because they are not properly patronised and encouraged. Sometimes these talents remain known only to their close ones or relatives, and very often they don't draw the attention of others. This is exactly what happened in the case of Antora Huda.

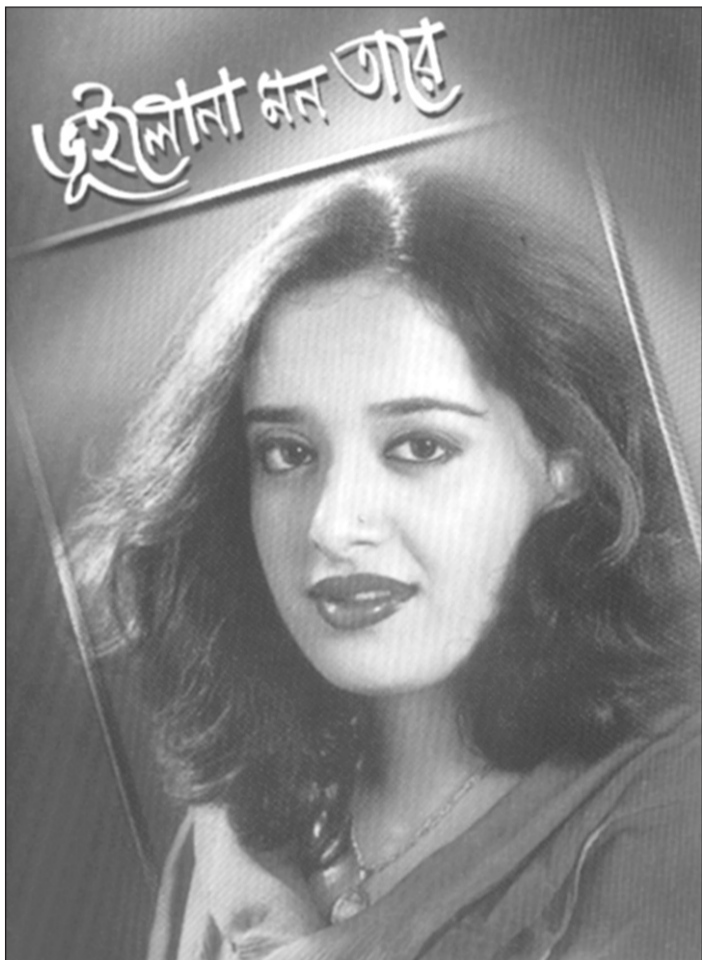

Most of the times, she used to sing at family parties and never even dreamed of bringing out a solo album of her own. Antora Huda has been involved in music since her childhood. Apart from her regular education she took her lessons in music and often performed in various family occasions. But it did not take long for Antora to draw the attention of a music producer. Her first solo album titled Bhulona Moon Tarey was officially released by Soundtek on January 9 at the Shinepukur Cottage, Gulshan.

Bhulona Moon Tarey is a collection of famous Bengali folk songs. In this album, some modern instrumental flavours have been added to these evergreen songs and Antora has sung them keeping the original classic feel intact. The album holds a dozen of Bengali folk legacies in it.

Apart from being a rising star Antora has another identity. She is the daughter of former minister Barrister Najmul Huda and Advocate Sigma Huda. So it is clear that she came from a family where music is of great importance as both her parents are singers apart from their law carriers. Antora has completely followed her parent's footsteps and has recently joined Swash Law School in London.

At the cassette-launching ceremony her father Barrister Najmul Huda said that he never thought that his eldest daughter would bring out a solo album of her own. She did not receive the support she needed from him. He also added that it was the musical influence of the family that got her into music.

Among many cultural and business personalities, Abul Khair Litu of Bengal Foundation was also present at the occasion. In his speech, Litu said that he knew Antora personally and admired her as a singer. Advocate Zahurul Islam, who first took the initiative of bringing out the album said that, one day he heard Antora singing at a gathering; he was thrilled to hear her voice and wanted to present this hidden talent to the public. Shamsur Rahman, chairman Soundtek, said that he is pleased to bring out the album of such a talented singer and the folk songs in it are really catchy.

Reputed singer Andrew Kishore said that he once performed in the same programme with Antora and he believes that she is a very talented and gifted artist. While speaking at the occasion, film personality Ehtesham said that he knew Antora from her childhood and was aware of this talent. He talked about making a movie with all her songs.

After the speech part her grandfather Akbar Kabir officially launched Antora's first solo album. This was followed by a live musical performance by Antora. She started with the song Norikh Bandhore a very popular folk song from her album, which was followed by Nirjan Jamunar Kule. The audience enjoyed her performance and was in all applause. After a short break for the azaan, she again started with the song Matir Pinjirar Mazhe Bondi Hoiya Kande Hason Raja, a very touchy song. The next song, which Antora performed, was Nishithe Jaiyo Phulobone - a very common and trendy song. Milon Ahmed did the musical remix for her album.

Next Antora performed Chaile Ki Ar Jayre Pawa the one and only song of her album, which was written and composed by Shiekh Wahidur Rahman. After this number singer Jewel came on stage and sang famous folk songs such as Kando Kane Mon, Dakatia Banshi and Amar Bhitore Bahire Antare Antare. After Jewel's performance, Antora came on stage for the last performance of the evening. She sang O Pakhi Uriya Jao Re Surma Nadir Pare.

Hidden talents such as Antora need to be properly evaluated so that the people get to know them and listen to them. All the songs of Antora's album are quite popular and Antora has added more sweetness into them with her sweet voice. There is no doubt that the cassette will be appreciated by the audience.
