SAVE THE CHILDREN (USA) EDUCATION HEAD
Save the Children (USA) wishes to recruit a senior professional to provide leadership and technical support to our work in Education. Reporting to the Country Director, the successful candidate will ensure Save the Children's Education work in Bangladesh meets our global commitment to high quality/high impact field programs, organisational learning and policy reform.
Working closely with our existing technical team, field staff and partner agencies this new position will ensure that Save the Children's work in education (including ECD, formal and non-formal learning for children, adolescent and adult learning opportunities) supports a goal of "lifelong learning". The successful candidate must be familiar with current thinking on education in Bangladesh, have the ability to design and devise effective strategies for education, have excellent team building, negotiation and leadership skills and have the ability to advocate for change nationally. Only candidates with considerable experience in the above areas will be considered.
Appropriate technical qualifications and outstanding written, interpersonal and representational skills are expected. The position is Dhaka based but will involve close interaction with field programs and field visits. Highly competitive salary and benefits package will be offered commensurate with the level of professional expertise we are seeking. Relevant overseas professional experience an advantage.
Applications with CV (no certificates), a cover letter describing the major challenges you see for Bangladesh in education, photo, current and expected salary and two professional references should be sent to The Administrative Chief, GPO Box # 421, Dhaka - 1000 by 31 January 2001.
Save the Children is committed to gender equity and especially encourages qualified female candidates to apply.
