SAARC confce on cancer
March 8-10
 By Staff Correspondent

A three-day SAARC scientific conference on cancer is scheduled to take place in the city from March 8-10.
 The conference, being held at the initiative of Oncology Club of Bangladesh, focuses on integrated initiatives to fight cancer diseases and search for appropriate policy in the region, a press release said.

The conference will bring together some 300 cancer specialists from all over the world including USA, UK, India, Pakistan, Nepal, Thailand and Holland. The conference secretariate has already received 50 original research papers on cancer to be presented at the conference.

It will focus on developing appropriate strategies in treating cancer in the region specific cancers like head and neck cancer, cervix cancer, liver cancer and their problems and prospects of multimodal approach in developing countries.

The secretariate of the conference has opened a web site www.oncology-club.org for receiving abstracts and registration.

BCU to stage demonstration today in city
 By DU Correspondent

Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU), a left leaning student organisation, will stage demonstration today in the city and on January 18 across the country to press home its several demands.

The demands include impartial trial of Kabir Murder case in Khulna and punishment of those involved, withdrawal of 'false case' lodged against seven BCU leaders including Kazi Abdullah and Shamim, end to harassment by OC Zakir on BCU leaders including Jharna at Khulna and removal of OC Zakir from Dumuria.

In a press conference at the Madhus canteen on the Dhaka University campus, the BCU leaders alleged that police is harassing the BCU leaders in Khulna and Dumuria following a murder of Jubo League leader Kabir on January 5.

"Actually, the ruling Awami League, BNP, Jamaat and banned armed political groups are involved in such crimes, but they are propagating against the BCU with a view to tarnishing its image, they said.

Film festival
Local artistes to resist screening of commercial Indian movies

Apprehending unabated screening of Indian commercial films in the upcoming Bangladesh International Film Festival, artistes of the mainstream local film industry have threatened to resist the move at any cost, reports UNB.

"If Indian commercial films are screened here, we will withdraw our membership from the festival committee," said Azharul Islam Khan, convenor of Bangladesh Chalchitra Samanay Parishad (BCSP) at a press conference in the city yesterday.

He said the BCSP had earlier demanded to exclude Saiful Islam Chowdhury, the main agent and exhibitor of Indian films in Bangladesh, from the festival committee, but the demand was ignored by the committee leaders.

Mizu Ahmed, general secretary of BCSP who read out a statement at the press conference, said if the festival committee fail to respond positively in this regard within 48 hours, they would go for tougher movement.
