Armed activists of Jubo League take position around KU Hony Treasurer allegedly involved

From Quazi Amanullah

KHULNA, Jan 23: A group of armed cadres of the ruling Awami League has taken position around Khulna University allegedly at the instruction of treasurer Abdur Razzak Sarder who is also one of the vice presidents of the party's district unit.

According to agitating students, the honorary treasurer of the university has called the armed cadres of Jubo League 'obviously in support of the authorities'.

At least 10 students were injured in attacks by the Jubo League cadres in the last two days.

The Jubo League cadres have threatened us to leave Khulna or face severe consequence, the students alleged.

Demanding re-opening of the university, students blamed both the Vice Chancellor and the Treasurer for creating anarchic situation on the campus by using the armed cadres against the students who are agitating to stop politicisation in admission, administration and allotment of seats in residential halls.

The Treasurer invited his party leaders to attack us on the campus on Sunday, forcing the Vice Chancellor to close the varsity for an indefinite period when situation had gone beyond his control, students alleged.

The authorities declared the varsity closed for an indefinite period on Sunday following agitation by the students.

A six-member committee headed by Prof Mohammad Abdur Razzak has been formed to probe the Sunday's untoward incident on the campus in which the VC, some professors and officials were assaulted and Administrative building and some dormitories ransacked.

The five other members of the committee are Prof Dr Saifuddin Shah, Md Abdul Matin, Ali Naki, Obaidul Hannan and Md Rafiqul Islam.

The holding of the second convocation of the university now depends on the outcome of the Forest dept: 94 out of 256 Class One posts vacant

By Nazrul Islam

A total of 94 posts including four posts of Deputy Chief Conservator of Forest (DCCF) out of 256 posts of Class One officers are lying vacant in the Forest Department, a meeting of the Parliamentary Standing Committee on the Ministry of Forest and Environment (MOFE) was informed yesterday.

Acting Chief Conservator of Forest (CCF) Mohammad Nuruzzaman was made CCF superseding his four senior colleagues on August 1 last year, it was learnt.

According to provisions, the file of an official should be sent to the authorities concerned within two months of his appointment for confirmation in the post. But in the case of Nuruzzaman, his file was neither sent to the Superior Selection Board (SSB) nor the authorities concerned.

Nuruzzaman is now holding responsibilities of eight posts in the department.

A source close to the ministry said that the Prime Minister's office had sent a letter to the MOFE asking it to follow existing rules and regulations regarding appointment of the CCF.

However, yesterday's meeting did not go through the CCF's appointment. It suggested immediate recruitment in the vacant posts of Class One officers.

The other vacant posts are: 12 posts of Deputy Conservator or Assistant Chief Conservator, seven posts of Deputy Divisional Forest Officers, 47 posts of Assistant Conservator, one Computer Programmer, three posts of Assistant Computer Programmer, one

No more high-rises in six-storey zones

Housing ministry decides

By Staff Correspondent

The government has decided not to allow 'any more' high-rise buildings in areas where a six-storey height restriction is in force, sources said.

The decision was taken by the Ministry of Public Works and Housing following a report headlined "Rajuk flouts its own rules, allows high-rises in six-storey zone" published in The Daily Star on Saturday, January 20.

Minister for Public Works and Housing Mosharrif Hossain told The Daily Star that the government was determined to implement the zoning layout of the city.

"Several high-rise buildings in six-storey zones have become obnoxious. This trend of unplanned growth of the city must be stopped for the sake of our environment and living conditions," said Mosharrif.

Rajuk has been approving high-rise building plans in violation of an official height restriction under the cover of "privately owned lands". In many city areas where Rajuk has strictly imposed the height restrictions, developers have managed to 'twist the standard' and obtain approval for high-rise building plans, sources said.

In residential areas like Dhanmondi, Gulshan, Bar-idhara, Lalmatia, Moham-madpur, Shamoly, Maghbazar, Shantinagar and other areas, 'enclaves' of privately owned
