Remaining DU LLB prel, final exams postponed

UNB, Dhaka

The Dhaka University authorities yesterday postponed the remaining LLB preliminary and final exams due to 'unavoidable reasons'.

A fresh schedule for the remaining examinations will be announced later.

Earlier, the university authorities cancelled its Barisal Govt College and Momenshahi Law College centres for widespread allegations of copying.

The centres were cancelled at the directive of the Vice Chancellor on the basis of a special vigilance team report on widespread adoption of unfair means.

A three-member special vigilance team visited some centres of the LLB examinations and found huge copying and unfair means, a source in DU told UNB over telephone.
