Call to follow Buddha's teachings for peace and amity

BSS, Chittagong
 State Minister for Information Prof Abu Sayeed yesterday urged the Buddhist youths to go forward with the mission of promoting and fostering the teachings of Lord Buddha to build up a non-violent and peaceful society.
 "Compassion, amity and non-violence, preached by Lord Buddha will immensely contribute to eradicating fanaticism and communalism in the country" the minister said while addressing as the chief guest the inaugural function of 33rd anniversary of Bangladesh Buddha Jubo Parishad and Youth Conference-2000 at Muslim Institute auditorium yesterday afternoon.
 The minister said majority of people of the country have always stood against communalism and fanaticism and had resisted all intrigues hatched in the name of religion.
 Presided over by Punnya Bardha Barua, chairman of the conference celebration committee, the inaugural function was addressed by Zeaul Huq Tulu passes away

UNB, Dhaka
 Zeaul Huq, Chairman and Managing Director of Ori-Oxi and Director in the IPPD and KAFCO, died at Mount Elizabeth Hospital in Singapore yesterday. He was 66.
 A former president of Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce and Industries and Employers' Association, Huq had been suffering from kidney and liver ailment for long. He was the first Honorary Consul General of Finland in Bangladesh.
 He left behind his wife, three daughters and a host of relatives and admirers to mourn his death.
 Huq, popularly known as Tulu, was associated with country's cultural movements and he was one of the founder members of Chhayanaut. He also functioned as a contact person of the Mujibnagar government.
 His namaj-e-janaja will be held at Azad Mosque at Gulshan today after Zohr prayers and he will be buried at the Banani graveyard.

Jatiya Samannaya Committee held a discussion meeting at the Central Shaheed Minar yesterday to mark its ninth founding anniversary.
