The Little Mermaid

a little village boy the richest man in the world.

Well it all sounds like fairy tales. but that is exactly what will be hap-pening in the movies this week. For it's Walt Disney which takes over the city for some time and bring the best of fairy tales on the screen for the young ones.

The event is the Walt Disney Retrospective and it's being organised by Zahir Raihan Film Society at the Goethe Institute at Dhanmondi house no10, rd no 9. The three-day long event will see the screening of six of the most popular fairy tales ever brought to the silver screen for children.

What's more is that admission is FREE to all children!

In Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, seven little ancient man try to save the little Snow White from the wrath of her wicked step mother. who is actually is a witch. But even they fail to do so and Snow White is lured into taking a bite of the poisonous apple that takes her life almost away from her. Its only the when the handsome prince comes galloping to find her sleeping in a glass cage on the mountains, that the magic occurs, a kiss from him brings back the fairest maiden of all back to life.

Life is not so easy for the little belle of the cinders, whose stepmother thinks that only her own

Bella and Della is fit for the prince. But the fairy Godmother puts things right by waving her magical wand and the glass slippers fit only Cinderella's feet to take her to the prince's house in Cinderella.

In Sleeping Beauty, a beautiful young princess is put to sleep by a wicked fairy and its only after hundreds of years that a prince comes galloping to her rescue, again waking her up from the curse with kiss on her lips.

The mermaid in the story wants to marry a handsome prince, and foregoes life under the sea for her love, only to lose her voice to become human. But will the prince accept her without a voice? The tragic story of love and sacrifice comes to life in The Little Mermaid.

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs

A beautiful princess is condemned to spend her life with a beast. And for all of those who think that she is doomed for her life, the princess actually discovers the tender heart that beats inside the heart of the beast and the rest is legendary, as told in the Beauty in

Everyone knows about the story of the village boy who is helped by the genie in the lamp to become the richest man in the world and wins the hand of the beautiful princess in marriage. Not all the wicked magicians in the worlds can stop Aladdin as the giant in the lamp discovers who his true master is in Aladdin and his magic Lamp

Two shows will be held each day

from tomorrow and the animated

Disney classics will definitely prove tpo be a rare treat for all children in the city. The schedule is as follows: Today: Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs (4.00 pm) & Cinderalla (5.30 pm). Tomorrow (Feb 19) its Sleeping Beauty (4.30 pm) & The Little Mermaid (5.30 pm), and on February 20 its Beauty and the Beast (4.00 pm) & Aladdin
