Body of young woman found

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An unidentified young woman was killed at city's Nayapalana area yesterday.

The killers, who are yet to be identified, dumped her body after killing.

Police recovered the body from the spot at about 7:30 am yesterday.

The woman was attired in red saree and red blouse.

There were marks of injury on her throat, police sources said. The reason behind the killing could not be known till writing of this report last night.

Motijheel police recovered the body and sent it to Dhaka Medical College Hospital for autopsy.

None came to the police station or hospital morgue to claim the body.

KU students form human chain

UNB, Khulna

Students of Khulna University (KU) yesterday formed a human chain at city's Shih Bari premises to realise their 3-point demand.

The KU students, who have been on a movement since January 18, will stage a sit-in in front of local press club today and lay a siege to the university on March 1.

Meanwhile, the university authorities called on the students to return to their classes and refrain from activities that may tarnish the image of the university.
