Gayoki's musical evening captivates enthusiasts

FAYZA HAQ

JRBA Rai Chowdhury who trained the members of Gayoki, that performed at the Alliance Francaise recently, says," I studied classical music at Allahabad myself. Having finished classical and Rabindrashangeet in 1976, I went to Santineketan, to study more in the same genres. In '85, after my marriage I came to Bangladesh. In '93 I began my school 'Gayoki'. Before that I taught at Chhayanote and now I am teaching classical, Rabindrasangeet and songs of DL Roy, Atul Prasad etc. I sang in the radio here but as their instruments clashed with my singing, I gave that up. "I went into singing as music was there in my family. My sister had done her masters from Rabindrabharati. I was doing my PhD in Rabindrasangeet at Santineketan when I had to give it up for family reasons. My first 'guru' was Santash Sarkar and later I studied with Kanika Bandhapaddya, Ashash Benarjee, Gora Sharbhardekari, Sitangshu Roy and ustad V V Wazalwar for classical music. Having music in my roots, my husband encouraged me enor-

I sang regularly on stage in Dhaka for Rabindrasangeet functions such as for 'Pahala Baishak' occasions with 'Chhayanote'. Earlier, in Calcutta, I had won a prize for 'dhrupad' in '75. I sing classical. 'Rabindrasangeet', Atul Prasad, DL Roy and Rajinta Kanta songs. I also sing 'harano diner gaan' such as those of Pratima and Shandha Mukhariee. Now I spend time in creating artistes rather than spending the time on my own singing. I am 'Scholastic' from 8.30 pm to 3.25 in the afternoon. In the evening I tutor and once a week, on Sunday, I hold my 'Gayoki' classesat Dhanmandi. I teach classical which is the ABC of songs along with other songs such as Rabindrasangeet. When I am singing myself I have the 'harmonium', 'tabla' and 'tanpura' accom-

Chowdhury Banna. I practice from two six hours before my performances, according to the needs. During the performance at the Alliance Française, I made my students sing Rabindrasangeet, Nazrulgeeti, and 'bhaian'.

"Amirul Aziz Kamal, who performs on the "tabla" for the group says," I learnt 'tabla' with Dhiren Sur and later learnt with Durba Rai Chowdhury's husband, Tapan Kanti Buddha at 'Sadarang' doing classical music and 'Rabindrasangeet'. I also learnt from Calcutta's Samar Shaha. Doing modern songs at one time, I could not assess my own abilities. I have performed at various places including the Shilpakala Academy. Having begun as a child I am now playing for 22 years. I have played other similar instruments too like 'khol' and 'pakhwaj' but I prefer music having given up all my other

Lisa Mawla, who sings along with her career as a hairdresser at Gulshan, says" My mother, who was also keen on singing, encouraged me. In my youth I had joined the 'Chhava Note' along with my dancing. I left music and took it up again when 'Gavoki' took place. I sang with Durba Rai Chowdhury on stage singing 'Rabindrasangeet' liking its workings and tunes. The day I'm off from my work is when my singing classes take place so that I can devote some time to it such as one hour twice a week. I like listening to 'Rabindrasangeet' on TV and my favourites include' 'Akash jurey shuninu' and 'Aghat korey jinee'. My favourite singers include Rizvana Chowdhury and enjoy 'kathak' in which Shibli and Bishwa Sri excel. During functions we practice for hours for a week songs and Bangal 'tappa' like 'Bhalo na bashiba jodi' and raag 'boiragi which he did on that evening at Alliance Francaise. He says, "I have seen my parents singing since I was born. I like both classical and 'Rabindrasangeet'. I learn from my parents and did so with Ajoy Chakrabarti. I sing with my parents on stage in places like Indian and Russian Cultural Centres. Public Library and Shilpakala Academy on about eight occasions. When singing, I play the 'tanpura'. My favourite singers are Salamat Ali, Nazakat Ali and Barey Ghulam Ali."

Gayoki's students range from career women in their 40s and 50s to children at the school stage and do a good job of part-time singing combining music with their work and

Stocktaking at the Art Institute

Annual Art Exhibition 2000 of Institute of Fine Arts comes to an end

NAFID IMRAN AHMED

T is a dream for every student of the Institute of Fine Arts to take part in the annual art exhibition of the institute. This year the Institute showcased its creative best at its annual exhibition which concluded on March 3.

Selected works from every department -- Painting and Drawing, Print-making, Oriental, Ceramics, Sculpture, and Commercial-- featured at the annual show.

Zainul, the institute's art gallery, displayed a rich combination of works of different mediums- oil painting, sculpture, tapestry, poster art, and wood work. This year's Best Media Award went to Prashanta Adhikari, a student of BFA 3rd year. for his work Porichiti - 2'. Done in watercolour the picture depicts a woman in happy mood.

'Jokhon Poristhiti Ghote - 2' by Firoz Mahmud won the Experimental Award in drawing and painting. In a 2 part canvas he portrayed our war of independence

Best award (ink) went to Shahid Kaji (2nd year new) for his fine ink work 'Motor Cycle - 2'. Best award (watercolour) went to Anupam Das for his realistic still life. Biswajit Gosshami won the best award

(pencil) for his brilliant sketch of an abandoned Vox Wagon. Apart from the award winning works the rest of the works by the students of department of drawing and painting were quite exciting to look at.

An installation work on Arsenic by Mijanur Rahman Milon, a BFA 3rd year student drew gallery-goers attention. The floor was covered with thousands of paper cut-out hands all featuring arsenic infection. He also painted on the photographs of arsenic affected women.

Most of the works displayed at the department of ceramics were ceramic wares with a few exception of figurative and abstract work. The best award went to Ranabir Pal (BFA 3rd year) for his abstract shaped little jars. Works by the students of the Department of Sculpture were cynosure of the annual event. Most of the sculptures were done in wood, metal and plaster. There were also some drawings by the students of Sculpture. The Best Award in sculpture won by Mahmudul Hasan for his 'composi-

The students of the department of crafts worked with jute, wood, paper and various other objects. Their works were colourful and attractive. The experimental award went to Nurul Islam for his tapestry

Department of graphic design exhibited poster arts, illustrations, and typography by their students. Harun-ar Rashid (BFA 3rd year) was awarded the Best Award for his poster of Creative Crafts of Bangladesh.

Department of Oriental Arts mainly displayed washed watercolours. The Experimental Award went to Rabeya Begum Lipi (MFA) for 'Kopol' an excellent watercolour depicting two women figures in blue. Students of Print-making showcased their works done in woodcut, dry point, watercolour, etching and lithograph. The Best Award went to Rania Alam (BFA 3rd year) for her woodcut 'Still Life'.

The exhibition was inaugurated on February 23 by A K Azad Chowdhury, Vice Chancellor, University of Dhaka. Noted artist Safiuddin Ahmed was also present as special quest at the inaugural ceremony, which was presided over by Professor Mahmudul Huq, Director, Institute of Fine Arts.

All in all the annual art exhibition 2000 was really a fantastic experience. It was great to experience artworks by young and budding artists of tomorrow.

Art to save life

A joint art exhibition by two sisters Tia and Nadia Chowdhury started at the North South University (BTA tower).

The money collected from the exhibition will help a disabled boy Shiekh Mohammad Shaheen for the implantation of artificial limbs. The exhibition time has been extended, it will reopen on March 12 and will come to an end on March 14.
