

Independence Festival March 17

DU CORRESPONDENT

The Liberation War Museum will hold a reunion of youths, titled 'Independence Festival,' at the Sultana Kamal Women Sports Complex in the city on March 17.

The programme will be held from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. As part of museum's various activities, invitation cards of the programme along with lucky coupons and identity card have been sent to all students who visited the museum between March 2000 to February 2001.

Those who are yet to receive the invitations have been asked to collect the card after showing their school identity card at the venue, a press release said yesterday.

Those who have received the invitation cards, have been requested to submit their identity card at the venue counter, the release added.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina inaugurated the Begum Fazilatunnesa Mujib Bhaban at the Jatiya Mohila Sangsad at Bailey Road yesterday.

JU classes begin March 18

UNB, Savar

First-year classes of BA (Honours) at Jahangirnagar University (JU) will begin March 18.

The university reopened yesterday after the Eid holidays and authorities at a meeting decided to hold the classes of this academic session (2000-2001) in the evening as well to avoid session jam.

Chaired by Vice Chancellor Professor Abdul Bayes the meeting was attended by deans of various faculties and departmental heads.

The meeting also decided to arrange extra buses to carry the students from the city, as the university suffers from accommodation crisis in its residential halls.

Unidentified body found in city

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Ramna police yesterday recovered the body of an unidentified old woman from Mirbagh lake yesterday.
