DCs asked to remain vigilant against sabotage in power, gas sector

BSS, Dhaka

Minister of State for Energy and Mineral Resources Prof. Rafiqul Islam yesterday asked the deputy commissioners (DCs) to remain vigilant against any sabotage in different important installations of the power and gas sector by the pro-hartal activists.

"The pro-hartal activists including the fundamentalists obstructed supply of oil to different depots and filling stations during the hartal last week and now they might conduct sabotage activities at key installations like gas wells, power plants and oil depots to enforce hartal," he told the DCs conference held at the cabinet room of the Secretariat.

Labour and Employment Minister M A Mannan chaired the session of the three-day DCs Conference 2001, attended by Cabinet Secretary Kazi Shamsul Alam and six divisional commissioners.

Seeking all-out cooperation of all the 64 DCs of the country, Prof. Islam said their involvement was indispensable in the development activities of this sector. He said power and gas sector required proper attention of the DCs, especially at the time when it faces problems relating to land acquisition and others.

Prof. Rafiq listed the successes of the government in this sector, saying that the power generation has almost doubled during the present regime. He said according to the yesterday's report, the generation of power was 2819 MW
