

DUTA condemns Ramna bomb explosion

DU CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka University Teachers Association (DUTA) brought out a mourning procession and held a rally yesterday in protest of bomb explosion at Ramna Batamul on the first day of Bengali New Year which left nine dead.

More than a hundred teachers joined the procession which began from the Aparajeo Bangla at Dhaka University at around 11:30am, and paraded campus streets.

Addressing the rally, DUTA leaders said that anti-liberation and communal forces are conspiring to destabilise our life.

"We shall not only protest such barbaric activities but also resist these evil forces at all cost", they added.

Meanwhile, teachers of the Dhaka University yesterday observed a minute-long silence before starting their classes as a mark of respect to those who killed in the bomb explosion.

Dhaka University Teachers' Association (DUTA) brought out a mourning procession on the campus condemning the Ramna Batamul carnage on Pahela Baishakh, the first day of the Bangla New Year.

Mayor opens healthcare centre in city

UNB, Dhaka

A new primary healthcare centre constructed under the 'Urban Primary Healthcare Project' in the city's Islambagh Community Centre was inaugurated yesterday.

Dhaka City Mayor Mohammad Hanif inaugurated the centre set up with financial assistance from Asian Development Bank.

Speaking on the occasion, the Mayor said the government as part of its efforts to reach healthcare facilities to the doorsteps of all citizens is constructing four such centres in country's four city corporations.

He said the centre would provide medical services like immunisation, diarrhoea control and mother and children.

Local MP Haji Selim, ADB Resident Representative Phiphi Shuphaphiphat and Local Government Division Secretary Amiyangshu Sen were present, according to a press release.
