Selected writings on literature and language

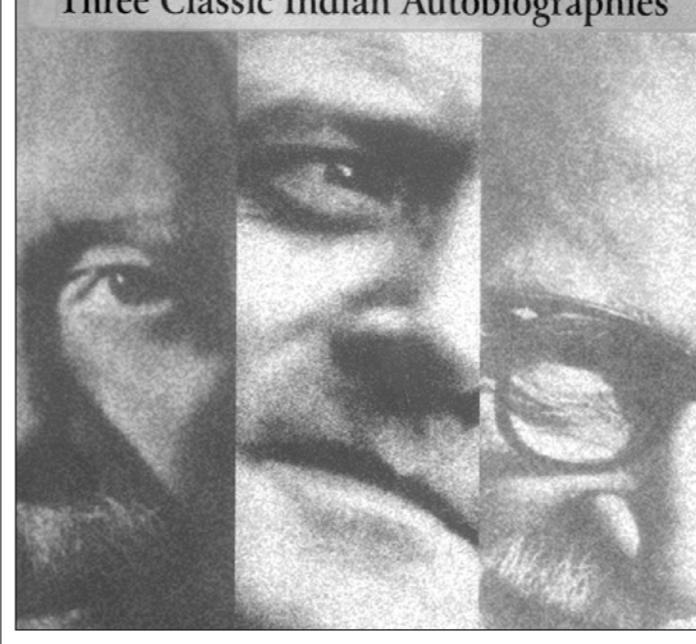

Rabindranath Tagore

Edited by Sisir Kumar Das and Sukanta Chaudhuri, Price: Tk 893

Tagore's place as a critic has been partly eclipsed by his fame as a creative writer. He is one of the founders of modern Bengali critical thought, and among the most perceptive literary analysts in the language. The present volume presents an authoritative and highly readable selection of Tagore's critical writings most of which have not been translated before.

My Story of 1971

Through the holocaust that created Bangladesh

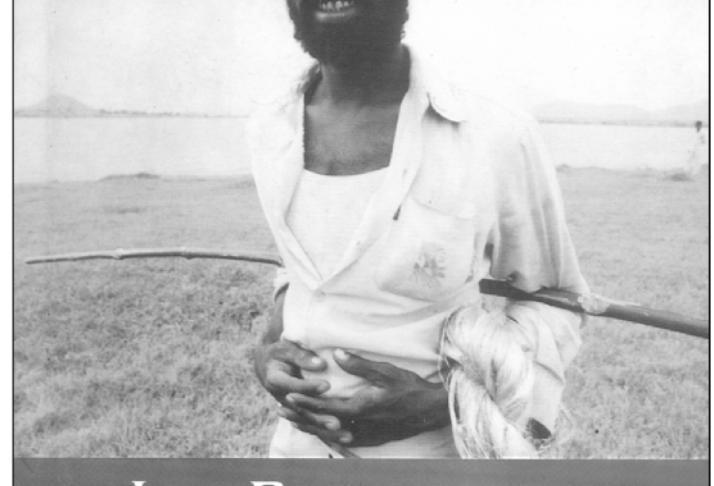

By Muhammad Anisur Rahman, Price: Tk 200

The book gives the personal story of the author as he lived through and in the background of the holocaust in Bangladesh in 1971, the military crackdown on an unarmed population, and the liberation struggle of the country.

Rural Political Protest

in Western India

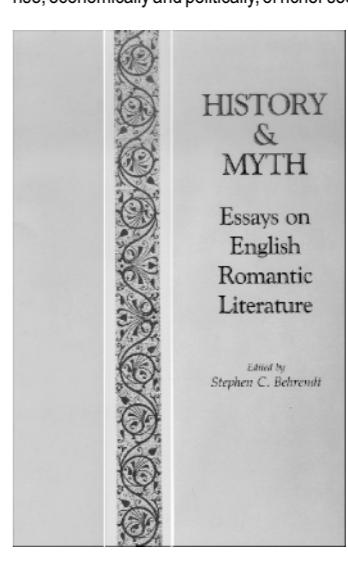

LIVI RODRIGUES

Rural Political Protest in Western India

By Livi Rodrigues, Price: Tk 675

Rural Political Protest in Western India analyses the growth of peasant resistance to the Raj and Brahmins alike. Nineteenth century commercialisation in western Maharashtra led to the rise, economically and politically, of richer sections of peasantry of the Maratha-Kunbi caste.

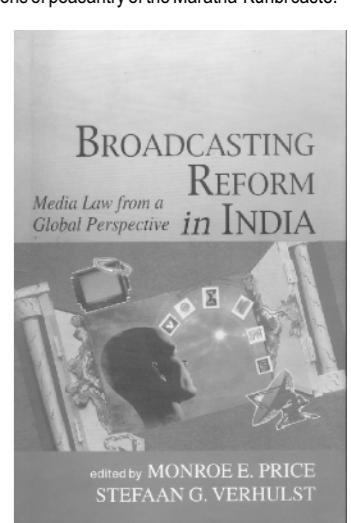

History and Myth

Essays on English Romantic Literature

Edited by Stephen C. Behrendt, Price: Tk 705

The essays in the volume explore some of the ways in which English-Romantic poets and playwrights either mythologized history and its leading figures or, in some cases, deliberately rejected and subverted that myth-making activity.

Broadcasting Reform in India

Media law from a global perspective

Edited by Monroe E. Price and Stefaan G. Verhulst, Price: Tk 715

The debate in India over broadcasting reform, provoked by Prasar Bharati Bill, has been one of the most fascinating and far-reaching of the decade. The editors bring together important essays and documents from the debate in a manner that informs discussions about free speech and media transformations throughout the world.
