245 women's hostels to be built at upazila HQs

BSS, Mymensingh

The European Commission, in collaboration with the ministry of education, will build 245 women's hostels at upazila headquarters of the country in eight phases.

This was stated by M Ismail Zabinullah, project director of the Programme to Motivate, Train and Employ (PROMOTE), at the opening ceremony of Upazila Women's Hostel, built by the NGO at Bhaluka, on Monday. The hostel at Bhaluka is one of the proposed 245 women's hostels.

State Minister for Health and Family Welfare Dr M Amanullah attended the function as chief guest and unveiled the plaque.

The inaugural ceremony was addressed by the ambassador and head of the delegation of the European Commission Antonio de Souza Menezes, Swedish ambassador Sverre Anders Johnson and joint secretary, ministry of education, M Nazrul Islam.

Presided over by Deputy Commissioner M Maizuddin Khan, the function was also addressed by PROMOTE team leader Valerie Emblem, UNO of Bhaluka M A Matin, upazila Awami League secretary Golam Mostafa, UP Chairman Subed Ali Master and Mahmuda Khatun.

Speaking on the occasion, the state minister said women's education is essential for national and economic development and there is no alternative to it. He urged the women to play their due role in this connection.

The two-storied hostel at Bhaluka has been built at an estimated cost of Tk 22.79 lakh. There are six bedrooms, three in each floor, with kitchens, dining rooms and attached bathrooms.

Bangla version of UNESCO documents published

BSS, Dhaka

The Bangla version of a kit of 10 UNESCO documents and publications titled "The Practice of Citizenship" was published in the city recently, a UNESCO press release said.

The kit offers basic learning materials for a broader concept of civic education including the dimension of peace, human rights, democracy and international understanding.

Bangladesh National Commission for UNESCO arranged translation of these documents, compiled and packaged in 1998, from English to Bangla. Teachers and others can use some of the materials to educate children as well as adults.

The translated Bangla version of eight documents have been printed in one volume and is now being distributed to the intellectual community in Bangladesh including ministers, secretaries, vice-chancellors, development partners and news media.
