Raga is India's gift to the world of melody and the present set is marvelous gift to all music lovers.

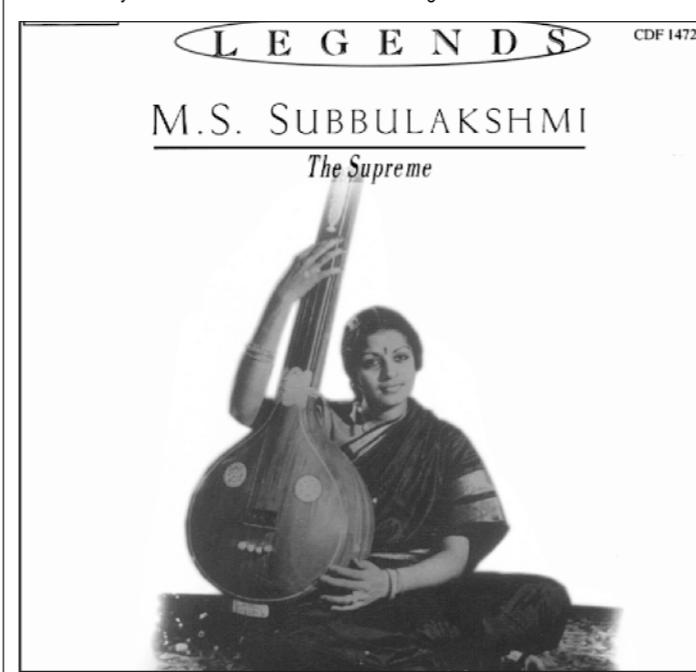

Morning to Midnight Ragas

Pandit Jasraj, Price: Tk 500
Late evening gives way to early night in perception. The expression of the romantic mind shifts away gradually from the consciousness of society around to a more intensely one-to-one character which begins to swell with deeper emotions and the glitter of sringara. This album paints the picture of that hour through Jaijwanti which conveys a rare masculine romance.

Ustad Amjad Ali Khan

Live in Calcutta, Price: 500
The raga featuring in the album is Yaman Kalyan.
Amjad Ali Khan's music is marked at once for its robust touch and delicate nuances. It is said that his artistry with the sarod reflects his Pathan heritage.

Transforming India

Social and Political Dynamics of Democracy
Edited by Francine R. Frankel, Zoya Hasan, Rajeev Bhargava, Balveer Arora
Price: Tk 893
Fifty years after independence, leading scholars of contemporary India come together to take stock of the country's experience of democratic functioning. Conceptualized as a set of interactions between liberal ideas and institutions on the one side, and hierarchical social structures and heterogeneous cultures on the other, democratic forms of governance in India have unleashed profound transformations which the essays in this volume seek to analyse and understand.
