Say Yes for Children campaign launched in Ctg

The Say Yes for Children initiative was launched in Chittagong on Wednesday amidst colourful festivity by hundreds of children of the Chittagong Division, says a press release.

Children sang the theme song urging adults to join hands in giving children a good start in life. To substantiate their point, children presented the 10 priority action areas in their own language.

Divisional Commissioner Abu Taher and Chittagong City Mayor ABM Mohiuddin Chowdhury and UNICEF Country Representative Shahida Azfar renewed their commitment to the children's call.

The Divisional event, that broadens support for the Global Movement for Children, marks continuation of the national launch of the campaign that took place on April 27 in Dhaka in presence of the Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.
