The project is being implemented by the BDRCS as part of its seven-month emergency flood programme in the districts of Satkhira, Jessor, Chuadanga, Meherpur, Jhenidah, Kushtia, Chapainavabganj and Rajshahi, a BDRCS press release said yesterday.

11-party for mass movement to save farmers

UNB, Dhaka

The left leaning 11-party has urged the countrymen to launch a vigorous movement to save the farmers through making the May 21 countrywide programmes a success.

The programmes include holding meetings and staging demonstrations at thana and district headquarters across the country.

"The country's farmers are being compelled to sell their produce at a throwaway price this year as the government fixed the procurement price of rice lower than that of the production cost," said the central steering committee of the alliance in a press release yesterday.

"A section of rich people have been amassing wealth by misappropriating the property of the farmers by rendering them landless," the committee observed.
