S/he is responsible for developing the capacity of CARE-Bangladesh program staff to understand and incorporate a governance perspective in our programs particularly in the areas of participation, linkages and accountability. The central focus will be to improve links between poor people and formal and non-formal development actors in order to increase poor people's participation and capacity to demand progress. The incumbent will work close collaboration with the Capacity Building Coordinator to develop the appropriate training and capacity building tools for CARE staff. S/he will take the lead in disseminating basic concepts related to governance and sharing lessons learned within CARE and from other organizations regarding governance.

Requirements & Competencies:

- Masters degree in a field related to Development
- 10 years experience in development work, including 3 years working the governance sector.
- Excellent verbal and written communication in Bangla and English
- Capacity for analysis and strong conceptual thinking.
- Program development, design and implementation skills
- Strong interpersonal and teamwork skills.
- A clear understanding of the legal framework and practice of local government in Bangladesh.
- Demonstrated success in organizing, managing and implementation of complex organizational initiatives
- Diplomacy and negotiation skills, especially the capacity to reach win-win compromise.

Position: Rights & Social Justice Coordinator

The Rights and Social Justice Coordinator is responsible for institutionalizing a human rights perspective in CARE-Bangladesh strategies, programs and policies. S/he is responsible for developing the capacity of CARE-Bangladesh staff to incorporate a rights based perspective in all phases of program design and implementation. S/he will work in close collaboration with Capacity Building Coordinator to develop the appropriate training and capacity building tools for CARE staff. The incumbent will take the lead in disseminating basic concepts related to rights and social justice and sharing lessons learned from within CARE and from other organizations regarding the same.

Requirements & Competencies:

- Masters degree in the relevant field
- 10 years experience in development work, including 3 years working in the rights and social justice sector (experience in gender and rights and the urban sector is highly desired).
- Excellent verbal and written communication in Bangla and English
- Demonstrated capacity in policy analysis and advocacy
- Program development, design and implementation skills
- Strong interpersonal and teamwork skills.
- The ability to communicate with clarity and style to a wide range of policy makers and field practitioners within and outside the organization.
- Demonstrated success in organizing, managing, and implementation of complex organizational initiatives.
- Capacity for analysis and strong conceptual thinking
- Diplomacy and negotiation skills, especially the capacity to reach win-win compromises.
