There is a little prince

Yes. This is the story of my little prince..

Ever since he was this tall, he excelled at everything; school work, intelligence and of course, mischief! A little terror everywhere but a little lamb in my arms. Now my little baby is growing up, you know!

At this time in his life, he needs lots of love as well as something extra that gives him the best nutrition. That is why I have chosen the world's best milk-NIDO. NIDO is undoubtedly the number 1 milk in the world. Compared to the other instant milk powders in the market, NIDO has a formulation that I can trust. It is a fully fortified milk that contains everything that my child needs for a healthy and active life like calcium and proteins to help his body grow, and zinc and other minerals to help his brain develop. So NIDO not only helps his physical growth but his mental growth as well.

All my dreams revolve around my child... Therefore I chose the very best for my little prince.

Because they're my whole world
