FEMA lauds EC move

BSS Dhaka

Fair Election Monitoring Alliance (FEMA), an election watchdog, has appreciated the efforts of the Election Commission (EC) to update the current voter list through further scrutiny.

"The current voter roll is the product of the most recent voter registration drive, which was conducted during May-June 2000," Feroz Hasan, secretary general of FEMA, said yesterday.

"The EC has taken cognisance of complaints and various reports in the media," Hasan said, adding

"it has already responded with appropriate measures."

The FEMA has also launched a campaign to make the voters aware and encourage them to check their names in the voter list. Under the drive, which will continue till June 30, different district units of FEMA will distribute leaflets, flyers and display posters in public places.

The EC has already put on display the final voter list at Union Parishad offices and ward offices in municipal areas including all district election offices for members of the public.
