Rajshahi University emerges champion

JU CORRESPONDENT

The concluding ceremony of the 3-day long 'Second Inter-University Cultural Competition' was held at the Jahangirnagar University Central auditorium yesterday.

Education Minister ASHK Sadique addressed the concluding programme that began on May 24 as the chief guest and awarded prizes among the winners.

A total of 167 contestants from 10 universities took part in 17 events of the competition held with a slogan "Culture will resist terrorism."

Rajshahi University emerged as champion by winning eight gold, three silver and three bronze while Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) became runner up by winning four gold, six silver and three bronze.

Dhaka University won four gold, four silver and one bronze while the host Jahangirnagar University won one gold, four silver and two bronze and Islamic University one gold, one silver and one bronze. Chittagong University won one gold and three bronze, Bangladesh Agricultural University two silver and two bronze, Shahjalal University of Science and Technology three bronze.

The Education Minister distributed prizes among the winners.

The three-day competition was concluded through a cultural programme presented by the winners of the competition.
