Women now an integral part of development

BSS, Dhaka
Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina has made the women one of the most integral part of the country's socio-economic development process over the last five years of her office in the government.
This was observed by Agriculture Minister Begum Motia Chowdhury while inaugurating the Technological Information Promotion System (TIPS) Export Fair and Festival 2001 in the capital city yesterday.
"Women are now almost an equal partner with their male counterparts in all fields like politics, economic activities and cultural affairs due to the pragmatic policies adopted by the present government," she said.
The Minister said Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina by considering women's potentiality as important for the country's socio-economic progress had empowered them in all spheres of national life by ensuring their proper education and scope for entrepreneurship development.
Dhaka Chamber of Commerce and Industry (DCCI) and DEV-NEI/TIPS jointly organised the festival with different handicrafts and homemade garments being displayed by the women entrepreneurs on the top floor of DCCI.
Acting President of DCCI Mahbub-uz-Zaman welcomed the guests while a European Commission (EC) representative addressed the inaugural session as the special guest.
