at Jatrabari

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday inaugurated the Jatrabari 12000-line digital telephone exchange by talking to President Shahabuddin Ahmed about accomplishment of a great scheme.

"The present government has brought a revolutionary change in telecommunications by taking some epoch-making steps," she said after inaugurating the exchange.

This exchange is under the Greater Dhaka Telephone Project under taken for the installation of 1,38,500 lines in the capital and its adjoining areas.

With the opening of Jatrabari digital exchange, the project works began in 1998 completed. The Prime Minister started the project by inaugurating the Chalkbazar exchange on April 28, 1998.

Expressing satisfaction over the quick implementation of the project. Hasina said Awami League does not believe in lip service, but in

Telecommunications and Home Minister Mohammad Nasim, Mayor Mohammad Hanif, State Minister for Telecom Abdur Rouf Chowdhury, Kamal Ahmed Majumdar, Habibur Rahman Mollah, Secretary Nazmul Ahsan Chowdhury and Japanese Ambassador Jiro Kobayashi also spoke at the function

Hasina said before their coming to power telecommunications sector was neglected, but the present government took practical steps to keep pace with modern communications system.

The government introduced the telecommunications policy as the prime step for the development of the sector and opened up the door for the country to step into the global information super highway.

her rule 39 districts came under digital phone network. Moreover she said. 92 upazilas are also getting the facilities of modern digital telecom

Shahabuddin shocked

Khaleda said.

He said King Birendra was a lence for the grief-stricken people of Nepal. "We hope that members of the Royal family and the people of Nepal will bear this tragic loss with courage and strength," he said.

He prayed for the eternal peace and salvation of the departed souls.

In a message to Nepalese Prime Minister Giriia Prasad Koirala, opment.

lost a visionary leader and a great statesman and Bangladesh, a true Sheikh Hasina said King Birendra will always be remembered for his great contribution South Asia.

members of his family and the and strength. She also prayed for the peace of the departed souls. In a condolence message, Khaleda Zia said King Birendra had made outstanding contribution towards establishing world peace

The Nepalese King had first

FROM APGE 1

College.

The deadly dispute

The Prime Minister said during make Nepal arms-free aiming at disarmament in South Asia.

The former prime minister said She conveyed sympathy to the King Birendra was a sincere supporter of late President Ziaur

Rahman when the latter initiated

A student of Loreto School was robbed of Tk 1500 in the city yester-was going to his private tutor's house by a rickshaw at about 3 nm when two muggers riding on a motorcycle intercepted him at Dhanmondi Central Road and snatched the money at gunpoint.

Mason abducted

Security force sources said the Security force and police started

At university in the Nepali capital

Following his studies he trained Dipendra gained a first class BA at the Royal Nepal Military Academy, and, like his father,

He had been patron of the Nepal

In his first ever interview in 1993.

given to The Rising Nepal and Gorkhapatra newspapers, he said:

"As long as everybody works according to the constitution and stays within the laws of the land, I ters, swimming, squash, listening to Nepali folk songs and modern and classical western music, playing the electronic piano and guitar at the royal palace and reading poetry.

Sports Council since 1992 and had travelled widely in both Asia and gained a licence to fly a helicopter.

degree and an MA in geography.

terrorists took Mohammad Ali

Mehran, a student of class ten.

establishment of SAARC brotherly people of Nepal.

Schoolboy

STAFF CORESPONDENT

robbed

day afternoon.

sources said.

upazila in the district.

of the spot of occurrence.

College in England.

Shahabuddin Ahmed said in his message.

visionary leader who led his country towards modernisation and development. "He will remain ever present in the hearts of the Nepalese people for his commitment to them.

The President expressed condo-

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina said King Birendra was an ardent lover of democracy which was flourishing in Nepal under his patronage, leading to an era of democracy and devel-She said in his death Nepal has in Khagrachhari towards the regional cooperation in BSS, Khagrachhari Sheikh Hasina hoped that the Tribal terrorists abducted a mason on Friday evening from Sindukchhari under Mahalchhari people of Nepal would be able to bear this tragic loss with courage

Hossain, 40, away from Sindukchhari crossing to a deep forest, when he was waiting for a vehicle to go home after his duty. region of peace and development. a joint raid in around 10 kilometres announced the commitment to Reports early Saturday suggested Dipendra had died from his injuries, but an official statement on state-run radio said he was seriously ill in hospital and had been Dipendra was educated in India

The poetry-loving crown prince and at Britain's prestigious Eton was declared heir apparent in January 1972 and in 1990 he was given the added title Colonel-in-

Two years later he was appointed chairman of the Council of Royal Representatives responsi-the eldest son of King Birendra and Educated at schools in Kathmandu, he later followed in his father's footsteps by attending Eton

Chief of the Royal Nepal Army.

during the king's absence.

Queen Aishwarya.

named as the new king.

12000-line phone 7 acid survivors back home Trim defence budget exchange opens | after treatment in Spain

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The culprit disfigured her face, but could not destroy her courage of leading a normal life, said Kakoli, one of the seven acid survivors who returned home vesterday from Spain after treatment

In 1999, a wooer in the same village in Natore threw acid on Kakoli, as in most other cases Undaunted, Kakoli sat for the Dakhil examinations, and stood 20th in the merit list in 2000. She was lucky enough to be visited by ASF officials and selected to go abroad. Acid Survival Foundation (ASF) in co-operation with Corporation Dermoestatica of Spain arranged the trip to Spain in the second phase and repaired the skin of their face.

The victims described their experience in Spain to the newsmen at a press conference at BRAC Centre

In an emotion-choked voice. Rubina, 26, from Narayanganj said she had to undergo four painful operations to regain a normal look on her face. She was not familiar with the Spanish language and food.

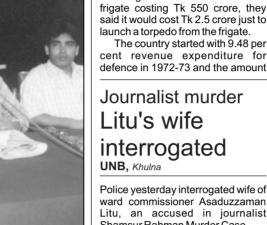

Shamima, hailing from Bogra, was victimised by her husband for dowry in 1992. She was treated first in a local hospital, and then shifted to Mymensingh Medical College Hospital. She is grateful to ASF for

The head of Rubina, aged 16, swelled alarmingly, as the doctors injected saline to grow hair on her acid-burnt skull. She burst into tears. when she was recalling her traumatic

The other three survivors Begum, 18. Asma. 17. Shahinur. 16. missed their nearest and dearest when abroad. They appealed to the government and the affluent class in the society to set up a modern burn unit in every hospital so that the victims do not have to go abroad for better

Dr. Shamonta Lal Sen, who accompanied the victims to Spain, Ivy Rahman, trustee of ASF, and Dr. John Morrison, executive director of ASF, attended the press conference.

Tareq Zia, son of Leader of the Opposition in Parliament Khaleda Zia, speaking at a conference of the Bogra Zila Samity at the National Museum auditorium in the city yesterday.

SAARC meet put off the third special session of the standing committee of SAARC scheduled to be held on the 8th and 9th as a mark of respect for the late His Majesty the King Birendra," the ministry said Asian diplomats had said that both India and Pakistan were making preparations for the two foreign secretaries to meet here signalling a thaw in their relations strained due to escalating border unrest. Diplomats said they had worked on meetings between Indian Foreign Secretary Chokila Iyer and her Pakistan counterpart Inamul Haq during their stay here in the Sri Lankan capital Colombo. The Colombo meeting could have also prepared some spadework for a summit between Indian Prime Minister Atal Behari Vaipavee and Pakistani military ruler General Pervez Musharraf.

Vajpayee formally invited

Hundreds of angry people took to the streets in an anti-Arab demonstration in the Tel Aviv suburb of Bat

Yam, home to some of the victims, tightened its closure of the Palestinian territories and told all

Palestinians inside Israel to leave

The Israeli army said it had Israeli leaders roundly condemned Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat for the bombing, saying he had not taken action against perpealso called on Arafat to take action senseless attacks against innocent civilians, I call upon Chairman Arafat to condemn this act and to call for an immediate ceasefire." Bush said in a these organisations, over which he Eliezer accused Arafat of wanting "to provoke chaos in the Middle

Defense Minister Binyamin Ben

"The attack perpetrated Friday after the "heinous terrorist attack."

US President George W. Bush

"There is no justification for Israeli television reported.

immediately.

statement.

East

has jurisdiction.'

trators of violence.

Musharraf to New Delhi for summitlevel peace talks last week. Diplomats said they expected the standing committee to set an agenda for a meeting of the "council of ministers" which is tasked with finalising dates for the next summit. India vesterday said it was "stunned and deeply shocked" at the massacre of Nepal's royal family and announced three days of state mourning. Earlier on the day, Vajpayee spoke to his Nepalese counterpart Girija Prasad Koirala, a senior official "The prime minister rang up Mr.

Koirala," an official of the premier's

"The prime minister also convened a meeting of the cabinet committee on security where Foreign Minister Jaswant Singh briefed them about the developments in Nepal," the official added.

Suicide bombing kills

New Delhi is closely watching the developments, he said. Meanwhile, a section of the border between India and Nepal was reported to be shut yesterday, the Press Trust of India (PTI) said. A group of Indian journalists trying to reach Kathmandu from West Bengal was stopped at the Kankarvita checkpoint and turned back, PTI reported.

The journalists said no reason was given denying them entry to Indian traders trying to take goods into Nepal were also not permitted to enter, the report added.

and brutal face of Palestinian terrorism. Now we have to take harsh measures. The rules of the game should be changed," Sneh told troops last week to fire only in self-defence, following publication of the Mitchell report on the deadly Israeli-the violence, a freeze on Israeli settlements in the occupied territories and tougher Palestinian action Arafat has called on Israel to accept the report in its entirety, including the recommendation on settlements, while the Palestinians have rejected the ceasefire as a Minister Ariel Sharon and senior ministers and military chiefs were meeting Saturday to consider a response to a suicide bombing outside a Tel Aviv nightclub overnight that left 18 dead and more than 100 injured. The bomber, who was among the dead, blew himself up among a group of young people waiting in line to enter the Pasha discotheque, a popular night spot in

Meanwhile, Israeli Prime

The report called for an end to Palestinian conflict against "terrorism."

Sharon had ordered Israeli Nepal treaty.

Indian and Nepalese citizens usually enjoy free travel into each other's country under the 1950 Indo-

No vehicular traffic could be seen including murder and snatching. on the Nepal side of the border, PTI

Sandwip tragedy

miles in and around Sandwip channel in the Bay.

naval teams were Some deployed on the shore at Sitakunda search operation near land during high tide.

day, Navy and police sources said no more bodies were recovered.

PM inaugurates FROM PAGE 12

The Tk 397.66-million overpass will be constructed jointly by local builder Development Constructions Limited and Uhang General Municipal Construction Limited of China.

Local Government Minister Zillur Rahman, Mayor Mohammad Hanif, State Minister for Shipping Mofazzal Hossain Chowdhury Maya and Deputy Minister for LGRD Saber Hossain Chowdhury were, among others, present at the inauguration at Khilgaon rail intersection.

a dramatic turn, defence expenditure rose to 19.06 per cent of the total revenue expenditure in 1975-76 and changed the whole characteristics of the state machinery," the eynote paper said Quoting UNDP and South Asian Human Development Report, the authors said defence expenditure in Bangladesh increased by 52 per cent (from US$ 341 million to 517 million) during 1985-96 period, whereas, even NATO reduced its defence expenditure by 25 per cent in that period. Mentioning the government's tion and internal security as the lowest (23.21 per cent) in fiscal 1974-75, they said the expenditure was generally high on those two heads in the 1980s. "Revenue expenditure on those two heads reached its peak at 41.20 per cent in 1984-85. However, in the 1990s, there revenue expenditure for administrawas a downturn of revenue expenditure on those two heads, although slow, and in 1999-2000 it came down to 27.76 per cent.

revenue expenditure on those two heads to 20 per cent through proper administrative reform and introducing modern technology like Information technology (IT).

They also raised questions as to where and for what purpose the allocations on two heads in the budget, general service and miscellaneous, are being spent and suggested diverting the resources for creating a safety net for the poor. However, terming the discussion a cliché, Dr Atiur Rahman said that any discussion for development of the country should focus on how to develop backward linkage for the highest export earning apparel sector and establish a linkage between banks and NGOs to infuse more resources into rural areas.

The others who spoke on the occasion include former defence secretary Salahuddin Ahmed. Dr Jafrullah Chowdhury of Ganashasthya, former IG of Police Abdul Khaleque, BNP leader Wing Commander (Retd) Hamidullah Khan and Dr Md Masum of Jahangirnagar University.

and social groups in South Asian countries to desist immediately from utilising these forces for political affirming the need for decommunalisation and secularism implying an active reconstruction of ethnic and religious identities in a spirit of equality, interdependence and mutual respect, we call upon states, governments, political parties and civil society organisations to uphold inter-ethnic, interreligious and inter-faith equality as recognising that sections of a media are increasingly becoming the means to propagate fundamentalist, communal and extremist ideology and sentiments, we call upon media institutions and personnel to uphold principles and ideals of democracy, pluralism and secularism in order to promote values of secular democratisation of South Asian societies could effectively challenge patriarchy and gender subordination, reinforced and sustained by reactionary forces, we call upon states, political parties and civil society organisation to uphold

We members of South Asian civil Recognising that the present conference held in Dhaka on June 1-2, 2001 has been a milestone in bringing together members of the civil societies of South Asia and paving a path to fight the communal and fundamentalist forces unitedly by upholding democratic, human and secular values; and pledge these fundamental principles:

Recognising that the process of diversity and tolerance; inalienable democratic principles;

Journalist murder Litu's wife interrogated UNB, Khulna

Even after signing of the CHT neace accord, the defence budget increased in the last three years and there was no declaration to reduce it as a dividend of peace, they men-Terming most of the defence expenditure non-productive, the authors of the keynote paper urged the government to 'freeze defence expenditure in the next budget at this fiscal year's stage in absolute terms and incrementally reduce it in the future' for diverting more resources to education and health and ammunition necessarily takes place to pay commission to some influential people and does not have any relation what so ever with secu-procurement of eight Mig-29s involving Tk 1000 crore and a naval Raising questions about the

They also said purchase of arms rity of the people.

ward commissioner Asaduzzaman Litu an accused in journalist Shamsur Rahman Murder Case. They took Shampa, wife of Litu, who was expelled from Jubo League, into custody at about 12 noon and released her after a few Police sources said they cordoned off the residence of Litu at the Sher-e-Bangla Road, took Shampa to Kotwali thana and inquired about her absconding husband.

Two professional killers arrested in city STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Police arrested two notorious criminals from the city's Sayedabad area in the early hours of yesterday.

The arrested are Bacchu, 30 and Mohsin, 28.

According to police both are professional killers in the city. Sources said Demra thana police raided the Sayedabad area at about 1:30 am and arrested the two from near Huzurer Bari. Police said the arrested are accused in a number of cases.

FROM PAGE 12

Navy sources said the search operation would cover 25 nautical with high-speed boats to conduct When contacted at noon yester-

Rajarbagh, Malibagh and Sayedabad

Dhaka Declaration need to urge upon political parties planted bombs and killed many people at the Ramna Batmul on the first day of the Bengali new year, Kabir Chowdhury said Demanding trial of war criminals.

he said Bangabandhu never forgave war criminals. "We are demanding trial of the war criminals for the sake of justice, not for

The concluding session was also addressed by Poet Shamsur Rahman, Prof Alia Imam (Pakistan), former Speaker of Nepalese parlia ment Daman Dhungana, former Speaker of Indian Parliament PA Sangama MP and Chitra Bhattacharava MP (Bangladesh). The concluding session was rounded up with a musical soiree. Following is the text of the Dhaka Declaration:

Recognising that fundamentalism and communalism are undermining the vitals of our society, eroding democratic values, norms and institutions and the perpetuation of continued acts of violence and terrorism: recognising that women, children and people belonging to ethnic and religious minority groups are particularly being victimised by fundamentalist and communal recognising that these forces are geared to gain political control by various means what so ever:

recognising that there is a great urgency in checking and rendering ineffective without further delay; further recognising that unless concerted efforts are made to achieve these objectives. entire South Asian region will be engulfed in medieval darkness:

recognising that countries South Asia are endangered by identical problems, we should move unitedly and resolutely to deal with recognising that some political ideologies as well as these forces in furthering their ends: affirming the

To harness our energies for cratic values, parties and social groups are using promoting social justice, peace, gender equality and secular demo-To work towards bringing all perpetrators of crimes against humanity and war criminals to iustice.

Gyanendra named regent FROM PAGE 1

"But since His Majesty King Dipendra Shah Dev is physically not able to take care of the affairs of the state and since both Queen Aishwarya and Prince Nirajan have also died, the Raj Parishad (privy council) has decided that Prince Gvanendra Bir Bikram Shah Dev shall be appointed regent. Gyanendra, who is the middle son of the late King Mahendra, has a keen interest in environmental issues but his attention will be on more pressing issues over the coming months An international member of the World Wildlife Fund since 1997, chair of the King Mahendra Trust for Nature Conservation (KMTNC) and also patron of the Britain-Nepal Society, he has also been in news for the wrong reason - unpaid utility bills on one hand and a rowdy son Gyanendra was educated at St

Joseph's College in Darjeeling,

India, and graduated from Tribhuvan University in Kathmandu

In May 1970 he married Princess Komal, the sister of the late Queen Aishwarva. He has one son. Prince Paras, and a daughter. The prince has acted as chair of the Regency Council and Royal Representatives Council, which deals with matters of state during the king's absence and has represented his late father at National Day functions organised by foreign embassies in the capital. Gyanendra, who has travelled widely, became a member of the state council in 1977. He also writes lyrics under the penname G. Shah Gyanendra was king for about two months in 1950-51 when his father Crown Prince Mahendra, grandfather King Tribhuban and other members of the royal family including then Prince Birendra fled to India to escape political turmoil at

The Sundarbans

FROM PAGE 12

UK. Netherlands and other European countries, along with civil mental organisations like FEJB, will launch a campaign against any bid to explore oil and gas at the government functionaries in Dhaka. would not take place in the reserve forest at Sundarbans and its 'impact zone' to protect the environment. He hoped that Shell would live up to its commitment. The participants also urged the ble for looking after affairs of state don't think there will be any prob-Born on June 27, 1971, he was His hobbies were flying helicop-

Craig Bennett said the concern for conservation of the forest is no longer confined in Bangladesh. It has become an issue worldwide, Craig said citing last month's demonstration in London. FOEs in society representatives and environ-Sundarbans and its 25 km 'impact

Craig said that he and Paul had meetings with Shell officials and They assured him that exploration government not to go for any PSC with oil companies for hydrocarbon exploration in the Sundarbans or elsewhere in the country without assessing the environmental bers of his family.

family.' The radio made no mention of the circumstances of the deaths of the 55-year-old Harvard-educated

There were conflicting reports on the crown prince's condition, with some officials saving he was in a deep coma and had been declared "clinically dead". Sources close to the royal pal-

King Birendra and the other mem-was triggered by a bitter family row over the woman the crown prince wanted to marry. As the argument at the dinner table peaked, the crown prince ace said the stunning massacre apparently stormed from the room. He went to his private quarters in the palace, armed himself with two semiautomatic weapons, walked back to the dining room and opened fire, before shooting himself.

The funeral procession of the king and gueen, and the three other royals identified by state radio, began yesterday afternoon, winding through the streets of Kathmandu to the cremation spot at the Golden Temple on the banks of the holy River Bagmati.

Hundreds of thousands of stunned mourners lined the streets of the Nepalese capital yesterday to watch the funeral procession.

The bodies of King Birendra and Queen Aishwarya, and three other members of the royal family killed in the massacre, were carried shoulder-high on bamboo stretchers towards the cremation site at the city's Golden Temple on the banks of the holy River Bagmati. The speed of the funeral, in accordance with Hindu traditions, had left the people of Nepal almost no time to digest the shocking news of the royal bloodbath that took place than 24 hours before during a regular Friday dinner gathering at the royal palace incense or clutching each other for The slow procession began at atrocious we have known. It came as Israel is doing all it can so that a ceasefire can be installed that ends the violence." he said in a state-Sharon spokesman Ranaan night in Tel Aviv is one of the most Gissin for his part warned that "a red line has been crossed." UN Secretary General Kofi Annan was "horrified", a statement issued by his spokesman said. adding that he "condemns this strongest possible terms.

indiscriminate terrorist attack in the

"This horrible event underlines the urgency of breaking the cycle of violence." it added. The blast came some 10 days after Sharon declared a unilateral ceasefire with the Palestinians and just before the premier is due to leave on a trip to plead Israel's case to European leaders. Foreign Minister Shimon Peres, Israeli Minister of Internal meeting Friday evening with his Security Uzi Landau said Arafat "is German counterpart, Joschka the one who has made it possible for Fischer, said Israel was determined to continue its truce, according to > public radio But former deputy defence minister Eprhaim Sneh said he did not believe Israel "can keep the the military hopital where the bodies had been taken the day before and was due to pass by the main gate of the royal palace on its way to the A mounted guard of honour led

The king's body, held aloft by the way, with police massed bands bare-chested brahmin priests, was covered to the neck by a saffron cloth - his face obscured by gar-lands of flowers and another piece of cloth wrapped around his fore-

Behind him came the body of the queen - inside an ornate, covered palanquin - followed by those of his younger son, Prince Nirajan, only daughter Princess Shruti, and one of the king's cousins, Princess seemed too stunned to react, others wept openly, holding sticks of

While many of the onlookers

Jayanti Shah.

playing sombre music.

temple.

ceasefire much longer." The bombing "shows the cruel

Nepalese royal family massacred this coastal city.

women threw flowers and rice coloured with red powder. "I couldn't believe it when I heard the news," said student Gopendra Gautam. "I had to come here to see for myself, but I still can't really take

As the procession passed by,

"I got the news by phone this morning, but my first reaction was that it was a hoax call," said social worker Shanti Mishra. "At a time when the country most needs a good leader, the king is dead." Behind the main funeral cortege, walked a line of official mourners, including cabinet ministers, senior palace staff and top military officers. One elderly mourner watching the procession, Hari Chnadra Paudel, said he was still confused as to what had happened in the palace on Friday.

"All we here are wild rumours, and it is time the government gave us a clear picture of what actually

The Home Ministry ordered three days of national mourning and requested all male government officials to shave their heads as a mark of respect Thousands of shocked residents, some distraught and sobbing, had gathered outside the palace and military hospital as news of the massacre spread and security was stepped up in this capital of 1.5 million people. King Birendra had ruled predominantly-Hindu Nepal as an absolute monarch from 1972 until 1990.

when his role became purely constitutional in the wake of a prodemocracy movement. The crisis triggered by the killings comes at an especially difficult time for Nepal, which has been struggling to contain an increasingly violent Maoist rebellion In one week in April, two Maoist attacks left 79 people dead, including 61 policemen, in the west of the country. During the last five years, the rebels' "people's war" has claimed at least 1,600 lives. The landlocked country.

sandwiched between its giant neighbours India and China, is one of the poorest in the world and relies heavily on foreign aid, with most of its foreign exchange earned from the tourist industry.

Prime Minister Girija Prasad Koirala, who was close to the king, enjoys an overall majority in parliament, but his government has been rocked by opposition protests and infighting within his own party. There were scattered anti-

Koirala protests in Kathmandu as news of the massacre spread, with demonstrators insisting that the prime minister, who is also minister of palace affairs, should shoulder

FROM PAGE 12 Tripura states in India also contributed to swelling of the Khowai, Manu and Gumti, he said. Monsoon winds meanwhile reached Akyab coast of western Myanmar on Thursday and is likely to move towards Bangladesh's Cox's Bazar-Chittagong coast in the next few days.

Flood in Sylhet

"However, the monsoon is likely to arrive in time, during the second week of June," Director of Meteorology Department Anwarul Kabir Choudhury told this correspondent vesterday

He said monsoon is likely to behave normally this season' although it is coming in the wake of 'abnormalities in weather' this year. Since January, there had been scanty rainfall causing a long dry spell. But in May, rainfall was 27 per cent more than the normal "But we expect the rains would remain normal during the monsoon", Choudhury said.