3 bus passengers robbed of Tk 74,500

Driver, helper arrested

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A bus driver and its helper were arrested yesterday for their alleged link with the robbers who took away Tk 74,500 from three passengers at Chhanertek in Demra.

Driver Mohammad Khalq, 32, and helper Atiqur Rahman, 29, of Challenger bus service were arrested on charge of assisting the robbers.

The Chittagong-bound coach suddenly stopped at Chhanertek after the two robbers gave a signal to the bus to stop. After boarding the bus, the two went straight to the back of the bus and robbed three passengers of Tk. 74,500. But, to the surprise of all passengers, the driver allowed them to get down from the bus.

Angered by the act of the driver, the passengers caught him and his helper and handed over them to Demra police station.

Mohammad Jasim Uddin, one of the victims, filed a case with Demra police station in this regard.

Polls observers asked to maintain neutrality

BROTEE to employ 18,000 observers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a workshop yesterday called upon the election observers to maintain neutrality at any cost while performing their duty.

BROTEE, an NGO, organised the workshop for its district level workers who will coordinate the monitoring teams, at a city hotel.

Sharmeen Murshid, Executive Director of BROTEE, said her organisation will employ 18 thousand observers in 65 constituencies across the country to monitor the voting process on the day of the election. A significant number of them are women and members of the minority community and tribespeople, she added.

She regretted that approximately 3 lakh election observers would not be able to cast their votes due to strict guidelines set by the Election Commission (EC). According to the guidelines, no observer will be allowed to monitor the election in the same than where he or she resides. "Specifically, the female observers will face difficulties for this decision," she noted.

Taherunnissa Talukder, Chairperson of BROTEE, was present as chief guest while Prof Dr Nazmul Ahsan Kallimullah of Dhaka University, Prof Dr Dilara

Indian NDC team meets Chief Advisor

BSS, Dhaka

A 19-member delegation of the National Defence College of India led by Maj Gen R Subramanyam made a courtesy call on Chief Advisor Justice Latifur Rahman at his office yesterday.

The members of the delegation showed keen interest in the deployment of armed forces for maintaining law and order situation during the upcoming election.

The delegation of the Indian NDC comprises participants from India, Indonesia, Russia and Sri Lanka.

The delegation members are Brig AN Bahuguna; Brig AS Bakshi, Brig PC Bhardwaj, Brig HK Kar, Brig D Malhotra, Brig PS Rana, Brig PK Sachdev, Brig KPD Samanta, Cmdr KN Sushil, Group Capt A Chaudhuri, Air Cmdr AD Chhibbar, Uma Bhattacharya, Anil Kumar, Col Kabul Haryono, Col Piskounov Alexande V. Rear Admiral SP Weerasekara and Rear Admiral H Sarath Ratnakeerthi.

Secretary to the Chief Advisor Golam Rahman was present at the meeting.

Choudhury of Jahangirnagar University and noted lawyer Dr Tareque M R Choudhury were special guests.

Dr Kallimullah said that election observers should monitor the voting process carefully and they must stay at the polling centres until the unofficial result of the centre are announced.

Dr Tareque said that election monitoring is a tough job. He urged the observers to perform their duty with utmost sincerity.

Dr Dilara said that lack of tolerance and mutual respect are the major obstacles to institutionalising democracy in the country.

At the workshop, the participants complained about non-cooperation attitudes of the election officials concerned at different places.

World Peace Day observed

BSS, Dhaka

Bangladesh Girl Guides' Association observed the World Peace Day in the city yesterday through different programme including formation of human chain for peace, rally, blood donation session and exchange of pleasantries with distressed children.

As many as 600 members of Bangladesh Girl Guides' Association including Yellow Birds, Guides, Rangers and Commissioners assembled in front of the association office at Bailey Road in the morning to mark the occasion.

Regional Commissioner of the Association Rowshan Islam inaugurated the day-long programmes by releasing pigeons and festoons, an Association press release said.

The human chain formed by the Girl Guides for peace later turned into a rally, which paraded up to National Press Club. Bangladesh Red Crescent Society cooperated with the Girl Guides in their blood donation programme.

The Girl Guides later exchanged pleasantries with 300 ailing children.
