DU students protest ongoing deadlock

DU CORRESPONDENT

Conscious Students of the Dhaka University (CSDU), a forum of general students launched a mass signature campaign programme yesterday in protest of the ongoing crisis in the university.

Announcing the campaign in a press conference on the campus CSDU leaders blamed the student organisations and university authorities for the recent deadlock at the university.

They said thousands of students are become hostage of a few number of people who are engaged in 'tiny students and teachers politics' for their own and party purpose.

Fearing an acute session jam the students also termed the deadlock a result of ill politics in the national arena and urged politicians to come forward to help solve it.

Manzur Ahmed, Lubain Chowdhury Masum, Hashain Zahid, Sabir Ekram and Mohammad Abdul Hannan addressed the press conference held at the Madhu's canteen.
