show of photographs capturing scenes mainly of Berlin streets is now being held at the Gothe Institut auditorium in Dhanmandi. Titled Uaterwegs in Deutsche land or on the way in Germany, the photography exhibition features some twenty-two snaps portraying a spontaneous and day-to-day life in the expression. Magnificence and grandeur All the colour photographs together make up a figurative vividly expressed in architecnarrative of fragments of daily tural wonders not only captiactivities, glimpse of German vates the viewers but also remind them of technological way of life, magnificent building and installations, casual gosexcellence and economic might siping of youths in group on the of Germany. Political activism has been One photo on the display indicated through capturing shows as minor German girl political slogans inscribed on capturing a boundless wonderthe wayside walls. This aspect ment of life evident in her facial of urban life in Germany corroborates to ours. Busy streets, shoppers at the different shopping malls, daily activities and movements of pedestrians, recreation corner and holiday resort on the sea-beach constitute some other aspects of German's way of life.

The show, which presents a glimpse of Germany, is the work of twelve young photographers. The collection of photographs is an outcome of how they look at the strangeness and thinks that appear unintelligible through their lens. It's an expression of how they interpret and present what they encounter with their eyes on the lens.

ast photographers include eleven girls and one boy who won a competition titled 'Think' which the Gothe Institut organised among German language learners in central and Eastern Europe including the CIS Republic in 1994

The participating are all between 16 and 21 whose assignment was to find traces of contemporary German history and describe its different

To serve this end the participants required to have a sound knowledge of Germany, have to visit museums, archives and libraries, and above all to have a high degree of reflection.

Some work display artistic value, bear mark of talents and a district way of looking at things by this band of budding photographers.

The exhibition, which opened on October 7, is open everyday except Fridays and Saturdays, from 2 to 8 pm till October 21.

The Mummy Returns

This Hollywood blockbuster runs at the country's premier cinema hall Modhumita from tomorrow. The Mummv Returns is the sequel of The Mummy and have all the ingredients of its earlier one. With its spinetingling adventures against breath taking landscapes, The Mummy Returns is sure to thrill cine buffs. Hordes of canine bodied Anubis warriors-literally hounds from hellbound across the Sahara in attack formation while carnivorus pygmy mummies ambush their pray in the jungles of the Nile.

Graphic prints show

Noted French artist Jean-Michel Alberola's solo exhibition of graphic prints is now being held at the French cultural centre, Alliance Francaise, at Dhanmandi

Six Seasons
