Different organisations protest attacks on minorities

UNB, Dhaka

Different organisations have protested the attacks on and repression of minority people across the country following the 8th parliamentary election.

Condemning the incidents Dhaka University Teachers' Association (DUTA) in a statement yesterday demanded of the government to take stern action against the culprits.

DUTA also expressed concern over the capturing of educational institutions and business establishments, and criticised the silent role of law enforcing agencies in this regard.

Meanwhile, Bangladesher Shachetan Chhatra Samaj continued their fast-unto-death programme at the Central Shaheed Minar premises, protesting the repression on minority people.

Eleven-party leaders including Rashed Khan Menon, Nirmal Sen and Morshed Ali and a large number of Dhaka University teachers expressed their solidarity with the programme.

CPB leader Manjurul Ahsan Khan, Gano Forum leaders Pankaj Bhattacharya and Saifuddin Ahmed Milon took part in the programme yesterday to express their support to the protesters.

The central steering committee of the 11-party in a meeting yesterday protested the comment of the Home Minister on the incidents and reiterated the demand for proper inquiry and punishment to the attackers.

Workers Party and CPB will bring out 'black-flag' processions in the city today to protest the attacks on minority people and inclusion of war criminals in the cabinet.

Bangladesh Christian Association leaders in a statement protested the ransacking of Jalachhatra Krishi Mission.

They urged the Prime Minister, Home Minister and law enforcing agencies to initiate inquiry into the incident and demanded exemplary punishment to the persons responsible for it.

Bangabandhu Sangskritik Jote held a protest meeting and formed a human chain in front of Jatiya Press Club protesting the repression on minority people and bomb attack on Asaduzzaman Noor's residence.

Bangladesh Chhatra Federation brought out a procession on the Dhaka University campus to protest the incidents of attacks, repression and looting of property of the minority people.

AL worker shot

UNB, Munshiganj

An Awami League worker was critically injured as terrorists shot and stabbed him indiscriminately at Munshirhat in the town yesterday.

Sources said the pro-BNP men picked up AL worker Ashu Bhuiyan, 40, from Gudarghat area at noon while he was returning home from Dhaka. After taking him to Munshirhat, the terrorists shot him at both of his legs.

He was first rushed to sadar hospital and later shifted to Dhaka in a critical condition.

Meanwhile, miscreants looted valuables from some 17 houses at Uttar Charnagura village in Sadar upazila on Friday evening. They also beat up the inmates of the houses.
