CU CORRESPONDENT
The third day of BCL enforced indefinite blockade at Chittagong University was marked with untoward incidents including firing on a teachers' bus and agitation by the examinees in front of the Proctor's office yesterday.
The loco-master of a university shuttle train also went missing yesterday.
Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) activists of Chittagong University (CU) allegedly fired at a teacher's bus on the Chittagong-Rangamati road at the Jateyabad area under Hathazari thana in the early morning yesterday. None, however, were injured in the incident.

Health and Family Welfare Minister Khandker Mosharrif Hossain speaking at a discussion in the city, arranged by the Doctors' Association of Bangladesh (DAB) to mark the National Revolution and Solidarity Day.

In another incident the loco-master of a Chittagong University shuttle train has been missing since yesterday morning. The university bound train started from Battoli Station in the city at 7.30 am and reached Zhatuola station when some BCL activists blocked it's way.
The loco-master has been missing since then and no leads could be found as to what had happened to him till filing of this report at 7.15 pm yesterday evening.
The victim is feared to have been kidnapped by the CU BCL activists enforcing the blockade at the university.
Meanwhile, around half of the examinees of Political Science department staged a demonstration in front of the proctor's office on the campus in the morning protesting the postponement of their examination.
Leaders of CU Islami Chhatra Shibir urged the VC and Proctor yesterday to hold a meeting with all the student organisations of the university to solve the ongoing stalemate.
