

CU admn change likely next month Aspirants for posts of VC, Pro-VC become active

ATATUL GANI SUMON, Chittagong

Aspirants for the posts of vice-chancellor and pro-vice-chancellor at the Chittagong University (CU) have started lobbying political and administrative high-ups.

The aspiring teachers aligned with the Bangladesh Nationalist Party and Jamaat-e-Islami are making every effort to secure the posts.

An administrative change would take place at the university by the next month thanks to the takeover of power by the new government, sources said.

The aspirants are lobbying frontline leaders of the political parties of their choice at different universities in Dhaka and Chittagong.

Three teachers aspiring to the post of the VC have recently held a meeting at the residence of a BNP MP enjoying the status of minister. But the meeting ended up in an altercation that later spilled over into a scuffle before a leader intervened.

Student bodies observe Noor Hossain Day

DU CORRESPONDENT

Different student organisations brought out processions and held rallies at the Dhaka University (DU) yesterday to observe the Shaheed Noor Hossain Day.

Leaders of the Jatiyabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) at a rally said the death of Noor Hossain escalated the movement against the autocratic ruler in the 1990s.

Now is the time to honour his sacrifice through realisation of his dream of a prosperous Bangladesh, they said.

The JCD leaders urged all to come forward to develop the country by cutting a swathe through terrorism and corruption in all sectors.

Monir Hossain and Mostafizul Islam Mamun, among others, addressed the rally.

The Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) has demanded ouster of all outsiders and terrorists, who occupied different educational institutions and halls across the country under the banner of the ruling party.

The student bodies of the BNP and Islami Chhatra Shibir have

Prime Minister Khaleda Zia presides over a meeting of the national standing committee of BNP at her office in the city yesterday.

Pabna Edward College student union election on Nov 13

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

Festive mood runs high on the Pabna Edward College campus due to the upcoming students' union election scheduled for November 13.

The Jatiyabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and the Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) will contest the election on separate panels. The Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) stayed away from the electoral race for what it called an "uncongenial atmosphere" on the campus.

The contending candidates scaled up their election campaign, by working until midnight, seeking votes from general students and hosting dinners in hostels. Covered have been the walls with colourful graffiti.

The college authorities have already taken all necessary steps to hold the election and issued identity cards to the students.

Some students said a secret deal was made between the JCD and the ICS on the sharing of posts in the executive body.

General Secretary of the JCD district unit Mahmudun Nabi Swapan told The Daily Star, "The JCD did not have any deal with any party and it would win the election with a landslide victory."

"The ICS tried to come into an agreement with us prior to the submission of panel names, but it was not done," Swapan said.
