Govt criticised for removing Prof Azad Chy from DU

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Immediate-past vice-chancellor (VC) of Dhaka University Prof AK Azad Chowdhury has reprimanded the government for the process it followed in removing him and appointing a new VC.

violating the Dhaka University Order-1973.

"Is this the reward for my relentless endeavour for development of the university?" he asked the government, referring to the academic developments carried out during his tenure.

New DU VC pledges to root out terrorism

DU CORRESPONDENT

Newly appointed Vice-Chancellor of the Dhaka University Prof Anwarullah Chowdhury yesterday pledged to root out terrorism from the campus.

"I will take stern and punitive actions against troublemakers irrespective of their party affiliations," Prof Chowdhury told reporters at his office yesterday.

The university authorities will identify and take academic actions against terrorists as part of short- and long-term drives, and law-enforcement agencies take legal actions.

"All students are equal to me irrespective of their political choice and ideology," Prof Chowdhury assured.

All bona-fide students will be rehabilitated in their residential halls shortly, and coexistence among activists of all student organisations on the campus and in the halls ensured, he continued.

The DU VC promised to work towards resolving three major problems facing the university:

Mukhlesuzzaman new WDB DG

BSS, Dhaka

Engineer Mukhlesuzzaman took over as Director General of Bangladesh Water Development Board (BWDR) on November 10, said a press release.

Prior to this posting, he was additional director general (Planning) of the board.

terrorism, academic logjam and declining standard of education.

Denying the allegation of his 'politically motivated appointment' Prof Anwarullah said, "Removal of Prof AK Azad Chowdhury and my appointment are in accordance with a constitutional provision and the University Order-1973 respectively."

There were several incidents of removal and appointment in other public universities in the past, he pointed out.

"Although the chancellor has appointed me for a four-year tenure, I won't cling to the post for such a long term ignoring the choice of university senators," he assured saying that the election of the VC panel would be held after settlement of some legal problems.

He declared that the DUCSU election would be held after evolution of a congenial atmosphere on the campus. He did not mention any schedule, though.
