A delight for city shoppers

New outlet of home and fashion accessories in the city ready to uphold the rich cultural heritage of Bangladesh

AZIZ AMIRUL

AYASIR, a Persian term for the word 'opulent' is about to become a regular utterance to the select shoppers of Dhaka ! Mahin Khan, one of the leading fashion designers of the country has set up "Mayasir Studio', a modern shop of home and fashion accessories at Banani that was inaugurated on November 16.

The shop, located on the first floor of a shopping complex, spreads out on a large floor space with a display of a variety of home items ranging from bed-covers and tablecloths to local apparels and jewellery. Home and office decoration items, made of wood, brass and wrought iron find place on the shelves that also hold large and small candle stands, lanterns, fruit bowls and tiny ornamental baskets of artificial flowers and orchids. Mahin Khan feels pleased and content to be able to pass on the tradition and cultural heritage of Bangladesh to her valued clients. 'It is a great satisfaction for me to be able to do something good for the nation, through the services of our skilled crafts and salesmanship', says the designer. 'The apparently successful launching of Mayasir is the beginning of a new venture in this country, targetted to lessen the crisis of unemployment through procurement of rural artisans and craftsmen for production of our items', adds a confident Mahin As Mahin reiterates, 'We want to depict our traditional values and customs through fashion. Creativity is important as well, and we hope to give our consumers the best of the latest design, keeping intact the basics of Bengali culture. The name Mayasir, of course, comes from Persian and I chose the term just to promote and stren- gthen the bond of regional alliance'.

Memory of the recent presence in the 'Trousseau collection' at Delhi a fashion show of Bridal wear, makes Mahin feel highly pleased.

The 3-day grand event was attended by a large number of foreign designers where Mahin, with her stall of Mayasir, was the representative of Banaladesh
