Exhibition A gem of a show

Indian jewelry exhibition, first of its type here, comes to an end this evening at Mayasir Studio in the city

AZIZ AMIRUL

AAYA, a Delhi-based business house of fashion and jewelry accessories has put up a 3-day exhibition in Dhaka from November 22 at the premises of Mayasir Studio, a local outlet of decoration and fashion accessories at Banani in the city. Display of hand-made gold items with diamond and other gems has been a truly satisfying sight for the connoisseur of precious ornaments and jewels!

Pavel Seth, a celebrated jewelry designer of the subcontinent, runs the department store of Kaava with all kinds of ornaments, clothing and home accessories solely for female consumers. The project, a brainchild of the female Indian designer, continues to pull a large crowd of gem connoisseur everyday at the posh area of South Extension One in the heart of New Delhi. Mahin Khan, Managing Director of Mayasir has come in close touch with the institution of Kaaya during her several past trips at the bridal fashion event in New Delhi. Kaaya as the result of their mutual bond of friendship has patronised Mayasir to hold an exhibition of Bangladeshi Salwar Kameez at the South Extension premises during this year's nuptial fashion show last October. Mayasir seems to be providing a renewed boost to the nod of goodwill between the two south Asian fashion organisations with the hosting of the ongoing jewelry exhibition at Banani. It has almost turned a custom for Kaaya to hold overseas

Gold bangles and necklaces with diamond are major attraction of the show exhibition since the inception of the house some seven years from date. 'We have displayed our designed products of jewelry items in venues of different prominent cities of the world that included London and New York', reveals Neelam, one of the two senior executives of Kaava present in Dhaka at the moment. Kamal matches his colourful gems ! opinion of appraisal with her female colleague about the fine attitude of the local clients. 'We are very glad to be able to represent our organisation in a city like Dhaka. We have discovered an excellent group of valued clients here who are much more aware of quality products than those from other countries and possess a broader buying capacity, too'.

Various designs, shapes and sizes provide the presented items a rich taste of variation and that of refined tone. Intricate skilled workers from all over setting of colourful stones and India. This is a technique that gems combined with the use of enables the Kaaya products to

A day to remember Annual cultural function of Siddigui's international school held development of the children.

From this commitment and responsibility Siddigui's arranged the annual cultural function in which the children performed different rhymes, songs etc. through which they tried to express their feelings and problems. The whole programme was excellent with the live and artistic participation and presentation of the children.

Presentation of children with different costume of various colors at the colorful stage really made the environment joyful and festive. Main attraction was Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice". The presentation was touchy and pleasant. The audience throughly enjoyed the performance of the kids. This three hours long program stared at 9.00 in the morning and ended with the thanks speech of Nadeem Siddique the principal a cheerful mind and we wish that they would continue their

Event

NNUAL cultural function of Siddigui's international school held recently at Sultana Kamal Women's Sports Complex at Dhanmondi Siddigui's is one of few English medium schools when the Enalish medium schools opened their doors to students back in the seventies. This school started its activities on 1974 with only senior section from class seven to A level initiated by Sagir Siddique.

This school is now operates at Dhanmondi, Dhaka.

Currently almost 300 students are studying in this school from playgroup to A level.

This institute tries to encourage and enthuse the students towards the social and cultural development alongside their regular academic activities. So that the students could be well aware of their cultural environment as well as their regular studies. The school arranges different cultural functions marking different national and international days. Basically the cultural practice is must for the proper mental growth and
