President tells cardiologists Reduce cost of heart operation

UNB, Dhaka
President AQM Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday stressed the need for reducing the cost of heart operation in the country saying that the poor patients cannot afford much money for their treatment.

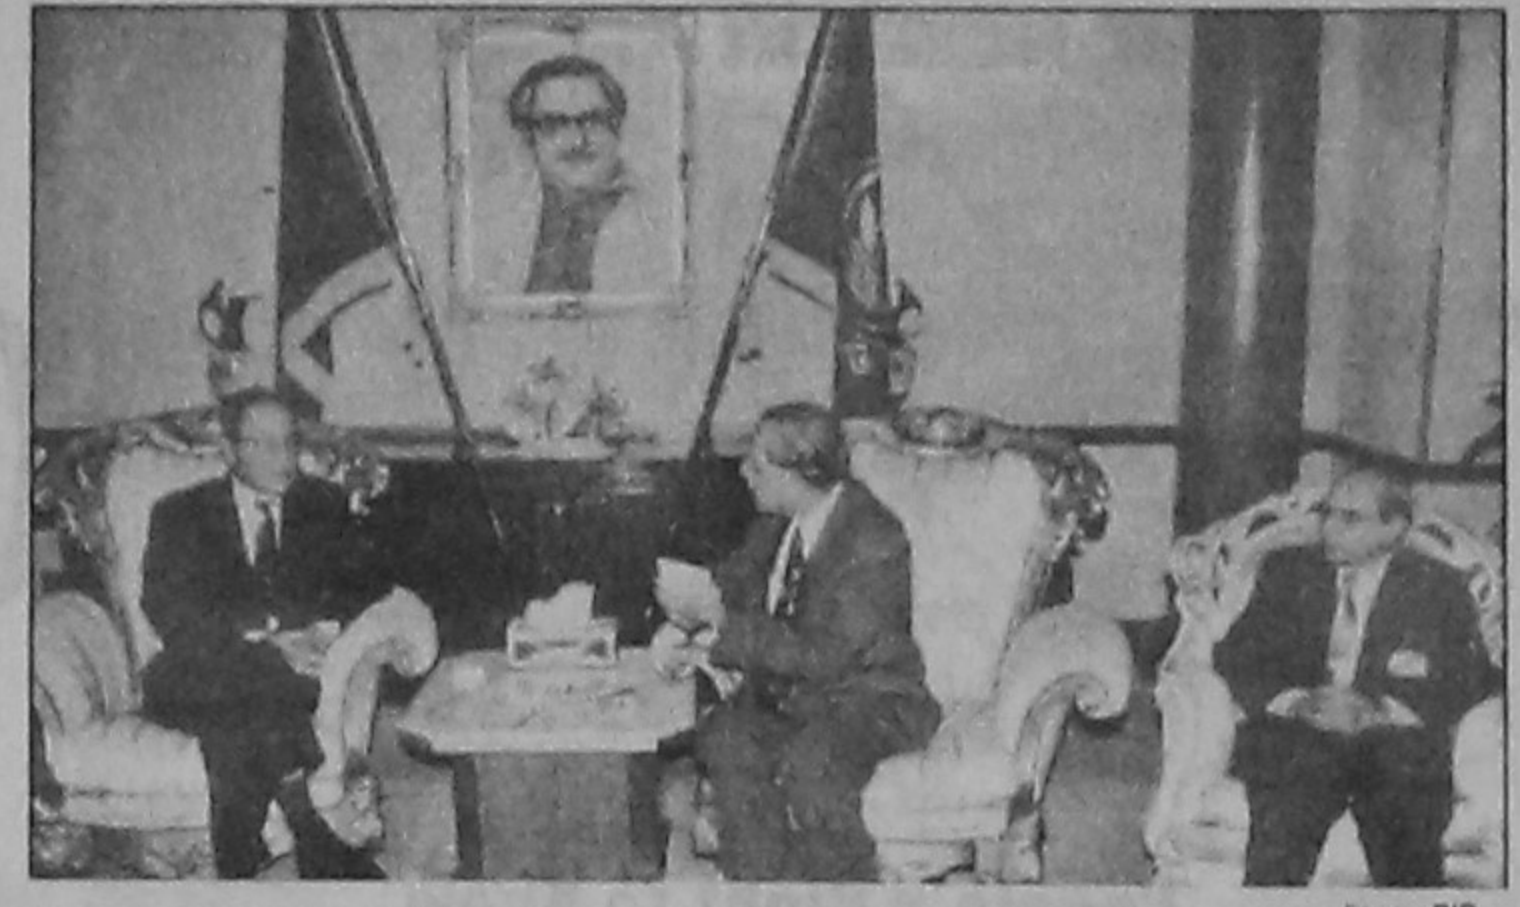

The President said this when a 16-member delegation of Bangladesh Cardiac Society called on him at Bangabhaban.

The members of the delegation led by its president and former advisor Brigadier (ret'd) Dr Abdul Malek apprised the President of the success of heart operation in the country.

They discussed with the President about the necessity for making the specialised hospitals into autonomous bodies for better and quick service to the patients.

They also agreed that the nursing service in hospitals should be developed to cater the needs of the patients.

Earlier, the delegation congratulated President Badruddoza on his assumption to the highest office of the republic.

A delegation of the Cardiac Society led by its president Brig (Ret'd) Dr Abdul Malek called on President Badruddoza Chowdhury at Bangabhaban yesterday.
