The Chinese firm has already formed a subsidiary, China Market (Bangladesh) Limited, and registered it with the joint stock company to set up the mall in Gulshan area.

A 10-strorey building having a capacity of around 5000 square feet area on each floor will house the shopping mall where some 100 Chinese enterprises are expected to open their outlets.

"The store will enable Bangladeshi consumers to choose their necessary items directly imported from China," said Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Staunch Limited Company Hu Shunqi while talking to The Daily Star.

He said there is high demand for cheap but quality household goods in Bangladesh and Chinese companies have such products to offer.

The CEO of Staunch also said there are some Bangladeshi products like seafood, which could find a good market in China

Indian equity funds may woo more investors this year

REUTERS, New Delhi

Falling interest rates and attractive valuations are expected to lure investors to Indian equity funds in 2002, after a bloodbath last year left the industry licking its wounds.

The ongoing standoff between India and Pakistan may keep the mood cautious but investors are taking the opportunity to enter the market at lower levels as fears of an outright war between the two neighbours apparently fade.

The impact in 2002 is likely to be of a very short nature," Nilesh Shah, chief investment officer at Templeton India mutual fund told Reuters. "This provides an opportunity for investors to get into equities at lower prices.'

India's benchmark 30-share Bombay Stock Exchange index .BSESN rose 2.45 per cent to 3,262.33 points on the last day of 2001 amid rising hopes that the border face off would be defused.

India has cut the key bank rate thrice in 2001 by a total of 1.5 percentage points to 6.5 per cent -the lowest in 30 years.

Taiwan joins WTO, vows to promote ties with China

Taiwan's President Chen Shuibian pledged to promote "constructive cooperative relationship" with China as the island prepared to formally join the World Trade Organization (WTO) on the first day of 2002.

'Today, Taiwan's accession to the WTO as its 144th member marks a highly significant milestone. We will not only fulfill our obligations as a member of the global community, but also view future cross-strait relations from a perspective of cooperation." Chen said in a prepared message

He urged Beijing to drop its military threat against the island so the two territories, separated in 1949 at the end of a civil war, could achieve permanent peace and intergration.

China has said it would use force should Taiwan move towards formal independence.

"If the Chinese mainland can renounce military intimidation and respect the people's free will, the two sides can begin with integration in the cultural, economic and trade fields, before further seeking a new framework for permanent peace and political integration,"

China and Taiwan should pursue the same goal of peaceful coexistence and mutual prosperity, and neither side should harm the other, he said. Taiwan joins the world trade body after more than 11 years of efforts, exactly 20 days after China's entry. "We are pleased that the two sides have acceded to the WTO in succession, and are prepared to make more active efforts to promote a 'constructive cooperative relationship' in cross-strait economics and trade for the greatest benefit and wellfare of all people,"
