BSS, Dhaka
Jute bags apparently became popular substitute for polybags as Bangladesh Jute Mills Corporation (BJMC) alone sold 6.5 lakh bags in the past five days.

launched vigilance against such irregularities. Actions would be taken against the persons responsible, he said.

Karim informed that BJMC has fixed Taka 3 and Taka 6.50 as the lowest and highest prices of their bags.

BNP won't compromise with terrorism: Moudud

BSS, Dhaka

The shopkeepers in different bazaars and markets of the city yesterday said the customers were coming with jute bags or buying it during the shopping. The price of the jute and cotton bags range between Taka 5 and 40 and the highest demand is for the BJMC bags, they said.

Bachchu Mia of Shanir Akhra area, previously a polybag vendor, said he was facing no problem because now he sells jute and cotton bags, instead of polybags.

Another vendor, Mohammad Imran of Fakirerpool Bazar, said he sells 15 to 20 jute bags daily.

But many customers alleged that the jute and cotton bags were being sold at a much higher price.

Abdul Karim, director (marketing) of BJMC told BSS that they were aware of allegation and Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Barrister Moudud Ahmed yesterday said the government has already proved that it would not do the same mistake as done by the immediate past Awami League government.

He said the government would not make any compromise in curbing terrorism and rooting out corruption.

Moudud was speaking as chief guest at a discussion organised by Noakhali Coastal Development Council here.

State Minister for Commerce Barkatullah Bhulu attended the function as special guest.

National Movement to Resist Terrorism brought out an anti-terrorism procession in the city yesterday.

Govt firm to save Buriganga

Water Resources Minister LK Siddique yesterday said the government of four-party alliance led by Prime Minister Khaleda Zia was committed to save Buriganga from illegal encroachment to protect the river's navigability and make it pollution free.

He said this in his presidential speech at a discussion with the leaders of the Save the Buriganga Movement at the ministry here.

Water Resources Secretary Faisal Ahmed Chowdhury, Director General of Bangladesh Water

Development Board Moklesuzaman and Convenor of Save the Buriganga Movement Prof. Mozaffar Ahmed were present.

Siddique underscored the need for strengthening private efforts alongside government initiatives to remove illegal installations from Buriganga and other rivers.

Elaborate discussion was held in the meeting about the steps to protect Shitalakha, Dhaleshwari, Turag and Balu rivers along with Buriganga.

Call to root out terrorism

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a rally in the city yesterday urged the government to root out all kinds of terrorism and arrest the terrorists to ensure peace and security in the society.

Organised by the National Movement to Resist Terrorism (NMRT), the rally was held in front of the National Press Club.

The speakers said terrorism has gripped the entire nation like an octopus. It has been hindering all our progress.

They urged all quarters of the society to be united to launch a strong movement against terrorism.

The rally was addressed among others by Sheikh Nizam Uddin and Abdus Salam.

Later, a procession was brought out from the Press Club which paraded different thoroughfares of the city chanting anti-terrorism slogans.

Maj (Retd) Sayed Iskander, convenor of the Jatiyatabadi Kalyan Parishad, addressing a press conference at the National Press Club in the city yesterday.
