JU to rehabilitate 132 BCL activists soon

JU CORRESPONDENT

The Jahangirnagar University (JU) authorities yesterday announced that they would rehabilitate all 132 activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) very soon.

Proctor Enamullah Parvez asked the BCL leaders to submit a list of the activists who have been staying outside the campus since the October 1 general election, fearing attacks by the ruling party-backed Jatityabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD).

At a meeting with the student organisations, the proctor also asked them to work together to restore an atmosphere conducive to smooth academic and administrative activities.

The proctor convened the meeting at his office ahead of the Jahangirnagar University Day, 2002 as BCL threatened to launch a tough agitation programme if authorities do not take necessary steps to rehabilitate them on the campus.

BCL president Mehedi Jamil and general secretary Noor Hossain Saikat and JCD president Ashraf Alam Jewel and organising secretary Royel and Shamima joined the meeting.

However, leaders of the Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) and Samajtantrik Chhatra Front (SCF) did not turn up at the meeting.

The leaders of the rival organisations resolved on peaceful co-existence on the campus. They decided to try to protect any terrorist.

"We will work together to ensure a peaceful atmosphere on the campus," Jewel and Mehedi said in the same spirit.

They assured the proctor that they would extend all-out support for any action against the terrorists irrespective of their party affiliation.
