Govt firm to impose ban on polybags from March 1

BSS, Dhaka

Minister for Environment and Forest Shahjahan Siraj yesterday said the government as per its commitment was not in a position to consider extension of the timelimit for already imposed countrywide ban on the use of polybags from March 1.

"The nation has demonstrated an unprecedented support to this historic step and we are not in a position to give a second thought on it by accepting the demand of poly-bag producers to give them more time," he said. But he assured that the government will sincerely consider alternative arrangements for the affected polybag producers through discussion.
