'Country needs more neurosurgeons'

BSS, Dhaka
President AQM Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday stressed the need for more neurosurgeons in the country to cope with the growing number of patients. The President was speaking at a seminar organised by the Neuroscience Institute, a project of B Chowdhury Welfare Trust, at Sheraton Hotel in the city. He said neuroscience is a very difficult subject of medical science and it requires a lot of patience and endurance. "Moreover, you need to apply your hearts along with your knowledge and brain to treat patients." The President also stressed the need for adequate number of paramedics and medical equipment to cope with the situation. President Badruddoza Chowdhury wished the seminar all success and urged the neurosurgeons to hold such seminars and symposium to share each other's experiences. Chaired by Prof. Rashid Uddin Ahmed, president of Bangladesh Society of Neurosurgeons, the function was also addressed by Social Welfare Minister Ali Ahsan Muhammad Mujahid, eminent neurosurgeon from Japan Prof. Akira Hakuba and Dr. Golam Mohtuddin, general secretary of the Neuroscience Institute.
