BNP, CPC to work jointly to consolidate ties

BSS, Dhaka

Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) and Communist Party of China (CPC) agreed to work jointly to consolidate the friendly and cordial relationship between the two countries.

Both the sides expressed the desire at a formal dinner hosted on Tuesday night by BNP Secretary General Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan in honour of the visiting 10-member CPC delegation, headed by Vice Minister Cai Wu.

Recalling contribution of China in the socio-economic development of Bangladesh, the BNP secretary general said Bangladesh always values the friendly relation with China terming it a "trusted friend".

He said visits of late President Ziaur Rahman to China in 1977 and 1980 had laid the foundation of relations between the two countries and the successive BNP governments headed by Khaleda Zia cemented the relation further.

Referring to the signing of seven MOUs between Bangladesh and China during the recent visit of Chinese Prime Minister Zhu Rongji here, he said the MOUs had expanded the areas of cooperation in various fields including economic and cultural planes.

The CPC leader said China was always with Bangladesh and it will remain by the side of the country in the days ahead.

Cai Wu said the Chinese people believe Bangladesh would progress further under the leadership of Khaleda Zia. The exchange of visits by leaders of CPC and BNP would continue to know each other more.

Ministers, MPs, political leaders attended the dinner, which was followed by a musical soiree.

The delegation, which left yesterday for Beijing, called on Prime Minister Khaleda Zia and ministers during their five-day stay in Bangladesh.

They arrived here on February 2 at the invitation of BNP.
