Docs urged to pursue human approach in profession

UNB, Dhaka

President AQM Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday called upon the physicians to pursue "human approach" in their profession to instill confidence in the minds of patients.

His remarks came while he was distributing certificates and medals to meritorious students of Women's Medical College and Hospital in Uttara.

President B Chowdhury said the doctors should treat their patients with love and sympathy. "You cannot be a good doctor unless you become a good human being," he said.

He said the students contributed much for the development of the medical college since its inception in 1992 and advised its Trustee Board members to start works for turning the college into a medical university.

Chaired by college Principal Prof AM Mujibul Huq, the function was addressed also by Executive Chairman of the college National Professor Dr AR Khan and Director Col (retd) M Hashmat Ali.
