Nat'l Road Transport Policy by next month

BSS, Dhaka

Prime Minister Khaleda Zia told the Jatiya Sangsad yesterday that a National Road Transport Policy would be formulated by next month.

"The formulation process of the National Road Transport Policy is underway as the government has a plan to bring the country's transport sector under a modern system," she said replying to a question from Jamaat-e-Islami lawmaker Moulana Abdus Sobhan.

Under the new policy, she said, measures would be taken to check overloading in vehicles and toll collections at terminals, remove roadside bazaars and set up an advanced training institutes for the drivers.

Referring to the initiatives to ease traffic jam in Dhaka city, she said freeing the capital from traffic congestion was an election pledge of the ruling party and measures had already been taken to solve the problems under the government's 100-day agenda.

Khaleda Zia said the government has also taken steps to modernise traffic and transport system.

The measures are ban on the movement of worn-out motor vehicles, phasing out of two-stroke three-wheelers and construction of fly-overs in the city.

Media confce in April

UNB, Dhaka

A three-day media conference will be held in the city in April to discuss five media-related subjects.

The topics are -- "How much the Newspapers lead in Social and Political Issues", "Columns in Newspapers and Readers' Expectation", "Control-free Electronic Media", "Role of Newspapers in the Development of Bangladesh", and "Film, Censorship and Women".

Centre for Development Communication (CDC) in cooperation with Mass Line Media Centre (MMC) and Bangladesh Centre for Development, Journalism and Communication (BCDJC) will organise the conference.

Annual sea exercise of Navy concludes

UNB, Chittagong

The Annual Tactical Sea Exercise of the Bangladesh Navy concluded on the Bay of Bengal yesterday.

A number of Navy ships including Frigates, Missile Boats, Torpedo Boats, First Attack Craft and Logistic vessels took part in the three-week exercise, said an ISPR release.

During the exercise, the BN ships carried out different tactical manoeuvres. The exercise ended with successful launching of surface-to-surface missiles from a ship.

Finance Minister M Saifur

Rahman, on board a Navy ship, witnessed the exercise on concluding day as chief guest. He showed keen interest in various exercises and expressed satisfaction over the high standard of professional efficiency of the Bangladesh Navy.

He also expressed his firm conviction that the Bangladesh Navy would play their due role in protecting the maritime sovereignty of the country as well as protection of the maritime resources.

Earlier on his arrival at the Navy jetty, the minister was received by the Chief of Naval Staff Rear Admiral Abu Taher.
