Sami show after Malik

Cricket

AFP, Sharjah

Mohammad Sami grabbed a hattrick after a maiden century by Shoaib Malik to lift Pakistan to a 51run win over the West Indies on Friday, giving them a decisive 2-0 lead in the three-match one-day

Malik, sent in as a pinch-hitter, hit an unbeaten 111 off 130 balls as Pakistan, electing to bat in the daynight international, recovered from 51-4 to post 232 all out.

Sami, the least experienced member of Pakistan's seam attack, then claimed the last three wickets off successive balls to bowl the West Indies out for 181 in 34.4 overs.

In what is becoming a frequent feature with West Indian batting, the last five wickets fell for just three runs after they appeared to be coasting to victory.

Chris Gayle smashed 62 off 46 balls to lift the West Indies to 101-1 by only the 14th over, before four middle-order wickets went down for 32 runs

Left-handed Gayle hit eight boundaries and three sixes in a thrilling display of attacking batting before offering a tame catch to point off Shoaib Akhtar. The West Indies were still in with a chance when Ryan Hinds and Shivnarine Chanderpaul lifted the score to 178-5 in the 34th over, but it was not long before the rot send in.

Razzag removed both batsmen in one over, setting the stage for a grand finale by Sami.

Bowling his eighth over, Sami trapped Ridley Jacobs leg-before with the second ball, then clean bowled Corey Collymore and Cameron Cuffy with the next two to complete the hat-trick.

Both Sami and Malik played only because Pakistan decided to rest their veteran all-rounder Wasim

Andy comes to Another Gavaskar hook

Cricket

AFP, New Delhi

Former India captain Sunil Gavaskar has fired a new broadside at the "unbeatable whiners" of English cricket.

Writing in the Hindustan Times, Gavaskar said England missed a rare chance to discuss cricketing issues with International Cricket Council (ICC) president Malcolm Gray in New Zealand recently. The president took the opportunity of being in New Zealand to hold an ICC meeting to catch up with the England team. And guess what the team or its officials did? They whined about my column, Gavaskar wrote in his regular column for the daily "Imagine that. Here's a rare chance to meet with the ICC top brass and apprise them about cricketing issues and they just after they squared a six-match series of one-day internationals 3-3 in India early this month. England coach Duncan Fletcher, who is originally from Zimbabwe, reacted angrily by questioning whether Gavaskar should be allowed to comment on another member country while serving as an ICC official.

Gavaskar wrote: "It is about time this canard that is being spread about a 'conflict of interests' between my media work and being on the ICC panel was nailed.

"Nothing that I do in the media whether electronic or print, comes in the way of my work as the chairman of the ICC Cricket Committee. It is a committee that looks at the laws and playing conditions of the game in the main. "I am not the only member of the committee. There are more than 10 others, a fair sprinkling of whom are doing media work, including Allan Border.

"There is, therefore, no way it's a conflict of interests, as was confirmed to me by the ICC chief executive Malcolm Speed "I would suggest the England Indians, Pakistanis, Sri Lankans coach perhaps check with the Australians, New Zealanders, West Bangladeshis, South Africans and other Zimbabweans about my comments and about their (the nglish) status as whiners. "He will then realise that it is something the whole world has been saying for years, not just me. Who knows, before he was appointed coach, he might well have had the same views.

Australia's most senior cricket official, Australian Cricket Board (ACB) chairman Bob Merriman, said the four-man selection panel --Trevor Hohns, Allan Border, David Boon and Andrew Hilditch -- were unanimous in their support for "That was their choice and the board were prepared to accept that and go along with it," Merriman said. Ponting said it was a great thrill to be the first Australia captain from

I've matured a lot as a cricketer and as a person so everyone around recognises and notices that.'

ACB chief executive James Sutherland said the decision had the potential to unsettle the preparations of Gilchrist and Warne for the Test series against South Africa which starts next week "There's no doubt it could have that sort of an impact. I'm sure those who had high hopes of captaincy will bounce back from that," Sutherland said on Australian radio. The choice of Ponting as new captain was a clear indication of Australia's intention to start rebuilding a new-look side ahead of next year's World Cup in South Africa.

Gilchrist was the favourite to succeed Waugh after serving under him for the past few seasons, although there were strong reservations about how the extra workload hands full opening the batting and keeping wicket, and there were fears the captaincy might be one burden too many. Warne was the second favourite.
