Meanwhile, Barcelona twice came from behind to beat fellow championship hopefuls Deportivo La Coruna 3-2 with Dutch international striker Patrick Kluivert scoring the winner just three minutes from the end at the Nou Camp. Valencia now have 44 points with Real Madrid in second spot on 43. Barcelona also have 43 points and the same goal difference as Madrid but are third having scored fewer Villarreal had dominated the opening stages of their game with through Rodolfo Arruabarrena in the 53rd minute. But Aimar, who had come on as a second half substitute, levelled proceedings as Valencia took advantage of having an extra man following Manuel Victor's red-card in the 57th minute.

Valencia and took a deserved lead

There were seven players booked in the match but Valencia won't mind as the draw means they now have a one point advantage over Madrid who went into their game at Bilbao without influential international Raul who was injured.

Valencia's joy at Real's plight

The defending champions fell behind after 29 minutes when Roberto Martinez Tiko, who had been doubtful for the match because of a heavy cold, scored.

Del Horno made it 2-0 for Bilbao in the fourth minute of injury time at the end of the first half.

Fernando Morientes pulled one back after 55 minutes for Madrid with his 17th goal of the season, but Vicente Del Bosque's team were unable to grab a second as the home side held out for the three points.

Morientes had scored five in his team's 7-0 destruction of Las Palmas last weekend, but even his efforts were not enough to quell Bilbao who exacted pleasing revenge for their Spanish Cup defeat at the hands of Real Madrid earlier in

At the Nou Camp, a convincing victory could have put Deportivo on top and they looked to be heading for a win when Diego Tristan, with his 12th league goal of the season, gave the visitors the lead.

However, veteran striker Luis Enrique, returning from injury, levelled for Charly Rexach's side just seven minutes later.

Substitute Gonzalez Sergio restored Deportivo's advantage with a 67th minute header before Argentinian international Javier Saviola brought the teams level for a second time six minutes later.

It was then left to Patrick Kluivert, who scored for Holland in their 1-1 friendly international draw with England in midweek, to grab the winner and the three points with a fine header just three minutes from

FA Cup Ref makes Souness mad

Football

AFP, London

Blackburn manager Graeme Souness was in a rage Saturday following his side's 1-0 FA Cup fourth round defeat by Middlesbrough at the Riverside At the end of the match, police had to escort the furious Rovers boss from the pitch following the controversial sending off of Blackburn defender Lucas Neill. Barber sent Neill off for a professional foul on Robbie Stockdale in the 73rd minute, a decision which turned the game in Boro's favour. Fourteen minutes later Ugo

Ehioqu headed in Gareth Southgate's free-kick against 10man Rovers to settle the tie

The decision looked extremely harsh on Rovers who were worthy of a replay until Barber's intervention. I thought the referee had a bad, bad game, and the highlight of his performance was the sending off, "I used to think he Barber was half decent, one of the better ones, until today. What will that statement get me? Fined? Banned? "But what happens to him? He will be back refereeing a Premier League game next week. Souness had support from his opposite number Steve McClaren. "If it had happened to us I would be the same as Graeme - incensed, said the Boro boss. Cup favourites Arsenal over-

Zimbabwe failed to solve bowling problems ahead of their Test series against India as they struggled for wickets in a tour game, which ended in a draw here on Sunday.

The tourists took just one wicket as the Board President's team reached 154-1 in the second innings at stumps on the third and final day of the only warm-up game before the first Test, starting at Nagpur on Thursday.

Earlier, Zimbabwe were all out for 340 in reply to their opponents' 361-3 declared after resuming at 292-6. Andy Flower top scored with an

AC Milan were held to a 0-0 draw by Atalanta at the San Siro Saturday, a result that will continue to keep their beleaguered coach Carlo Ancelotti in the firing line

In Saturday's other game Juventus defeated Fiorentina 2-1 to move provisionally top of the Italian First Division although champions AS Roma will return to the summit if they beat Brescia on Sunday.

AC Milan had most of the play but could not find the goal at the San Siro and remain winless since the 1-0 triumph over Lecce on January 5.
