

PDB snaps 28000 lines

UNB, Dhaka

In its intensified drive to check illegal use of power, PDB snapped power connections of 28,000 bill defaulters and illegal consumers in its 8 transmission zones across the country since January 12.

Of the total disconnected lines, 25,668 were bill defaulters, said a

PDB press release adding that power supply was restored to 7,536 consumers after payment of their outstanding bills amounting to Tk 5.62 crore.

It said some 408 cases were filed and Tk 31.0 crore realised as fine from 2,052 illegal power consumers.
