Bush greets Khaleda

UNB, Dhaka

US President George Bush has extended greetings to Prime Minister Khaleda Zia and the people of Bangladesh on the occasion of Eid-ul-Azha.

In a message, the US President said, "Please accept my warm wishes to you and the people of Bangladesh on the occasion of Eid-ul-Azha."
"It is in times such as this that we reflect upon the spirit of peace and hope that, as you have shared with me, is an inherent part of Islam."

The US President thanked Khaleda for her "government's continued effort to combat terrorism" and support for the people of Afghanistan as they rebuild their country.

Postal holiday

All post offices in the country will remain closed for four days from today on the occasion of International Mother Language Day and Eid-ul-Azha.

'Accidents claim 50000 a yr'

BSS, Dhaka

Health and Family Welfare Minister Dr Khandakar Mosharraf Hossain yesterday said that nearly 50,000 people die each year in road accidents, drowning, taking poison, homicides and suicides.

"National assets worth about Tk 2000 crore are being destroyed only in road accidents a year," he said while addressing a function held to felicitate the Child and Mother Health Institute of Matuail on its declaration as a 'Safe Community Support Centre' by the World Health Organisation (WHO).

An agreement was signed by the Chairman of Collaborating Center on Community Safety Promotion of the WHO Prof Leif Svanstrom and Director of the institute Prof Mohammad Mominul Haque in recognition of the institute.

This is the first recognition in Asia to an institute as a 'Safe

Community Support Centre' by WHO.

Presided over by the Director of the institute Prof Mominul Haque, the function was also addressed by Salahuddin Ahmed, MP, former Vice Chancellor of BUET Prof Emeritus Dr Iqbal Mahmud, Additional Health Secretary Khandakar Fazlur Rahman, Prof MQK Talukder and Dr AKM Fazlur Rahman.

WHO Executive Prof Robert Ahakman handed over a flag with WHO monogram to the Director of the institute during the function.

Fabrics worth Tk 2.15cr seized

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A team of Customs Intelligence and Investigation seized imported fabrics worth about Tk 2.15 crore from a factory at Fakirapool in the city's Motijheel area on Tuesday.

Led by joint director Khandakar Mohammad Aminur Rahman, the customs team with the help of Motijheel police raided the Feman Reiments Garments Factory at about 3.00pm. After searching the factory, the team seized over 1 lakh yards of polyester fabrics.

The factory-authorities said that of the seized fabrics, a consignment of 216 bales did not belong to them. But they could not confirm from where they got it.

Customs officials suspected that the fabrics were stocked in the factory to sell in the local market.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Concern, an International Development Agency marking this year as its 30th year working in Bangladesh, works towards bringing about positive changes in the lives of the poorest people in 27 countries in Asia, Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe invites applications from suitable candidates for the following positions.

1. PROGRAMME MANAGER—HEALTH & NUTRITION

The health and nutrition programme of Concern now has primary healthcare/nutrition projects, essential services package support project and child survival projects. The Programme Manager, a senior management position based at Dhaka who reports to the Assistant Country Director, will head the health and nutrition programme. The person will play a vital role in reviewing and providing advice and guidelines to the current programme, initiating new interventions/programmes, and charting strategic plan for the future direction of the programme. S/he will be responsible for the management and improvement of the Health and Nutrition programme in liaison with the Regional Managers. Liaison with national level relevant government and non-government agencies and working with partners at national and field level would be an important task of this position.

Requirements: The primary criteria for selection will be minimum five years relevant management experience and demonstrable knowledge in the relevant field. Clear understanding of current healthcare policy of Government, its transition, future direction and roles of NGOs/other development partners in this process are essential requirement of this position. Applicants are expected to have post graduation in Public Health or related discipline, may be relaxed in case of excellent track record in the relevant field. Excellent interpersonal skills as well as the ability to speak and write English to a high standard are essential. The person must be able to work in a team and foster team building in all working situations. Applicants should be able to work with partner organisations (local NGOs, Municipality and government bodies) for the purpose of their capacity building in the area of healthcare.

2. COORDINATOR—PARTNERSHIP

This position is based at the Organisational Development Unit (ODU) in Head Office and plays a vital role in attainment of one of the organisational new strategic directions - working through partner organisations. Major responsibilities will include - assessment of partners (CBOs, local government organisations and local NGOs), identification of the areas need improvement to increase the overall capacity and suggest necessary measures, improvement and increase the impact of existing programmes through research, evaluation and technical support, development of organisational skills in capacity building of local organisations, and review and improve guidelines, policies and procedures of partnership and relevant areas;

Requirements: The successful candidate should hold a post graduate qualification with proven skills in organisational analysis and development, research and evaluation, participatory project design and proposal writing, and techniques like AI (appreciative inquiry), PRA, PLA and so on. S/he must be able to work in team and foster team building in all working situations. Excellent interpersonal as well as organisational skill, flexibility and ability to be a self-starter are essential pre-requisite for this position. Ability to produce high quality reports to tight deadlines are essential. The successful candidate needs to assure quality and timeliness of all work in any situation.

3. DOCUMENTATIONS & PUBLICATION OFFICER

The position will be based at Head Office in Dhaka and reports to Head of Organisational Development Unit. The person will mainly be responsible for maintaining a resource centre; publishing Concern's internal News letters both in Bangla and English; and prepare and document best practices of different programme components, interventions both internally and externally. The person requires to take extensive project visits.

Requirements: Applicants are expected to hold post graduation degree, preferably in English/Journalism with 3 years experience in documentation and publication in development sector or relevant area. Interpersonal and organisational skills as well as the ability to speak and write both Bangla and English to a high standard are essential requirement for this position. The person should have an analytical mind and be able to understand new ideas quickly and put them into practice.

The positions entail attractive salary package in conformity with the responsibilities of the positions. Applicants should send their brief resume, two copies of passport size photographs and names and addresses of two referees to Human Resource Department, GPO Box 650, Dhaka - 1000 by 07 March 2002. Brief resume can also be forwarded through email at hr@concernbd.org. Envelopes/resumes sent through email should be marked with the position applied for.

Female candidates are especially encouraged to apply
