

Leander, Mahesh break up again

AFP, Calcutta

The ace Indian tennis doubles pair of Leander Paes and Mahesh Bhupathi on Monday split for the second time in three years following a recent lean run.

Lender's father Dr. Vaes Paes made the announcement here, after the former world number one pair went out of the top 10 in the ATP Doubles Champions Race with a string of losses.

"Leander and Mahesh will not be playing together as they had not been doing too well in recent weeks," Dr. Paes said. "It was Mahesh who decided to opt for a separate partner."

Popularly known as the "Indian Express," the duo of Leander and Mahesh had parted ways in 1999 before coming together a little before the Sydney Olympics the following year.

At home, the feeling was that by splitting in 1999 and not getting enough time to play together before the Olympics, Leander and Mahesh denied themselves and the nation a medal at Sydney.

"Let us hope whatever decisions they take are the best for them as well as the country. The decision seems to have been taken in a mature way," said Dr. Paes, a former India hockey player.

The doubles combination has won 23 ATP Tour titles, including three grand slams, but hit a bad patch this year after winning the Tata Open in Madras in January.

They even failed to qualify for the semifinals of the ATP Tour World Doubles Challenge Cup held in February in the southern Indian city of Bangalore, Mahesh's hometown.

Following the decision to part wapartnerSouthAfrican John Laffnie de Jager while Bhupathi will play with Jan Michael Gambill of the United States.

Smith qualifies

REUTERS, Cape Town

Twenty-year-old debutant Graeme Smith could barely hide his delight at scoring a half century that helped revive South Africa's fortunes on Day Three of the second Test against Australia at Newlands.

"It was wonderful to get out there and score some runs," Smith said after making just three in the first innings. "Everything was a new experience and I've learned more in this Test match than in two years of first class cricket."

South Africa were 307 for four in their second innings to lead by 164 runs, with the not out batsmen Neil McKenzie on 28 and Ashwell Prince five.

Smith contributed 68 runs to the total on Sunday and was unlucky to be given out when umpire Steve Bucknor decided he had edged a delivery from Shane Warne through to Adam Gilchrist. Replays suggested the ball struck his pads rather than the bat.

"We want to get to at least 400 and then have a look from there. It's a very good batting track but it is starting to take some turn and get a bit up and down so it's not going to be easy to bat on the last day. If we can keep them in the field a bit longer (we can then) create a bit of pressure on our bowling."

"Dressing room spirits are high at the moment. We know we've got a long way to go but we're looking forward to each day rather than not," added Smith.

The young left-hander said the attitude of the young newcomers to the South African side had played a significant part in raising spirits, although he humorously admitted it may have had as much to do with their naivete as ability.

"I think it makes a big difference in the sense that we haven't been involved in all the defeats. Even though as South Africans we suffer with the team, we come in with a positive attitude and it's been a fresh start which has rubbed off on some of the other guys. We've brought a bit of youth, a bit of enthusiasm -- and maybe a bit of ignorance too!"

Smith was singled out for top honours from a young age and said cricket was simply a game he loved playing.

Representing his country had been one of his aspirations since South Africa were first readmitted to the international fold with a one-off Test against West Indies in Barbados in 1991.

"I think ever since I saw South Africa walk onto the field for the first Test after readmission I've wanted to play Test cricket for my country. I was pretty young at the time and remember more about the 1992 World Cup.

Mongia lauded

REUTERS, Mohali

India coach John Wright has praised Dinesh Mongia's contribution with bat and ball after the 64 run win over Zimbabwe in the second one-day international.

India amassed 319 for six batting first and then bowled out Zimbabwe for 255 to level the five-game series after losing Thursday's opener by one wicket with two balls to spare.

Mongia hit a strokeful 45 in a century opening stand with his captain Sourav Ganguly and then took three wickets with his slow left-arm spin.

"He is a thinking cricketer," Wright said of the 25-year-old.

"Mongia has a hundred in him. It is good to see players like him contributing to the team."

Mongia has also proved an effective opener after being drafted in to replace Sachin Tendulkar, absent from the series with knee trouble.

Ganguly, whose top-score of 86 on Sunday despite a knee injury won him the man of the match award, said his side will now look to dominate the remainder of the series.

"We have to keep a steady head and look to win the next three games," he said.

Zimbabwe shook India by pulling off a one-wicket victory in the first Faridabad one-dayer after Douglas Marillier's 24-ball 56 not out lifted them from the brink of defeat.

But Ganguly said he was confident there would be no repeat of such heroics.

"We lost to a freak knock in Faridabad and that doesn't happen every day," he said.

Zimbabwe skipper Stuart Carlisle blamed his bowlers for sending down 25 wides.

"It was hard after we gave away too many extras and it was a good pitch to bat on," he said.

"We got to a good start, but lost wickets regularly."

Sourav steers India

AFP, Mohali

Sourav Ganguly and Rahul Dravid slammed robust half-centuries to set up India's 64-run victory over Zimbabwe in the second one-day international here on Sunday.

Man-of-the-match Ganguly smashed an 83-ball 86 and Dravid 66 not out off 59 deliveries as India posted a record 319-6 after electing to bat in the day-night game.

Pinch-hitter Travis Friend (63) shared a 134-run stand for the second wicket, but the total proved too big for Zimbabwe who were dismissed for 255 after being penalised one over for slow over-rate.

Part-time spinner Dinesh Mongia and Harbhajan Singh pressed home the advantage given by their batsmen as they shared six wickets.

Left-arm spinner Mongia, bowling for the first time in 12 matches, finished with 3-31 and off-spinner Harbhajan grabbed 3-40 as Zimbabwe lost their last six wickets for 51 runs.

Harbhajan ended a Zimbabwean fightback when he dismissed Friend and Campbell in successive overs to help his team square the five-match series 1-1 following their one-wicket defeat in the previous game at Faridabad on Thursday.

Friend struck one six and seven fours in his maiden 59-ball half-century and Campbell eight boundaries in his 75-ball knock, but none of the remaining batsmen could capitalise on their brilliant efforts.

Their stand was the highest against India, the previous best for the second wicket being 125 between Campbell and Murray Goodwin at Bulawayo in 1998.

Mongia then got the prize wicket of Andy Flower, who chopped a delivery on to his stumps after contributing 29.

Douglas Marillier, who improvised superbly to make an unbeaten 56 in his team's win in the last match, could not repeat his magic as he fell to a running catch by wicket-keeper Ajay Ratna while trying to sweep Mongia.

Earlier, India went on a run-spree against an erratic Zimbabwean seam bowling attack, surpassing their previous highest total against the visitors of 306-5 at Ahmedabad in 2000.

Ganguly put his team on the right course, hitting three sixes and eight fours in his fourth successive half-century, much to the delight of nearly 40,000 spectators. He put on 109 for the opening wicket with Mongia (45) and 79 for the second with Venkatesh Laxman (52).

Zimbabwean seamers Heath Streak, Friend and Gary Brent erred in line and length, giving enough width to Ganguly and Mongia to cut and drive.
