BIGGEST COMPUTER FAIR BEGINS MAR 24

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Preparations for the biggest ever computer show in the country have been completed.

Prime Minister Khaleda Zia will inaugurate the 'BCS Computer Show-2002' at the Bangladesh China Friendship Conference Centre at Sher-e-Bangla Nagar in the city on March 24.

This is the 9th annual computer fair organised by the Bangladesh Computer Samity (BCS).

Leading computer selling firms, software developers, Internet Service Providers (ISP), IT service providers, IT publishing houses, IT innovators and educational institutions will take part in the seven-day long fair.

International IT firms will also take part in the fair directly or through their local representatives.

Also, the individuals who are developing software on their own will have an opportunity to participate in this show.

Over 200 big stalls have been erected at the fair venue. For the first time, the BCS has decorated all the stalls maintaining uniformity of style.

According to Md Sabur Khan, president of BCS, the fair will not only showcase the computers and its accessories, but it will also provide an idea of IT related activities for the visitors.

During the fair, two seminars will be held each day at the fair venue, where the IT experts will discuss the problems and prospects of ICT industry in the country.

A raffle draw will also be held for the visitors on the last day of the fair. And the prizes include car, computer devices, and many other attractive things.
