3rd IU convocation today

RAHAT AHMED, Kushtia

The third convocation of Islamic University (IU) will be held today (March 28).

Prime Minister and Chancellor of the university Begum Khaleda Zia will chair the gala ceremony and confer degrees to various degree holders. It is the first convocation in any university after the takeover of administration by the BNP led four-party alliance.

Prof Dr Shomser Ali of Dhaka University will deliver the convocation speech on the occasion.

Earlier, the authorities concerned of the university invited the Secretary General of the Organisation of Islamic Conference (OIC) to deliver the convocation address, but because of his busy schedule he could not attend it.

However, he has sent messages wishing success of the convocation.
A budget amounting to Tk 14.42 lakh has been allocated for 18 sub-committees of the steering committee of the convocation, though the university faces an acute shortage of fund of Tk 5.5 crore revenue deficit.
The convocation venue has been selected at the newly constructed auditorium of the Teacher- Student Centre (TSC) at the campus.
A total of 284 various degree holders have registered their names to take part in the convocation. Of them, 55 for honours degree, 57 for masters degree, 149 for both honours and masters degrees, six for M Phil and 17 for Ph D degrees.

Besides, nine students will get medals for their outstanding results in examinations.

Cadets of Bangladesh National Cadet Corps (BNCC) will give a guard of honour to Prime Minister and Chancellor of the university Begum Khaleda Zia before the convocation procession on the campus.

While talking to The Daily Star correspondent, vice-chancellor (VC) of the university Prof Mustafizur Rahman said, 'The university was established as an international university from its very inception under the University Act-1980. From the convocation venue, the university will be declared as an international university', he added.

At present about 8,200 students have been studying in 18 departments under five faculties with 871 teachers and employees.

The first convocation of the university was held on April 27, 1993.

BSS adds: Education Minister Dr Osman Faruq will attend the convocation as special guest.

Vice-chancellor of the university will hand over certificates to the students of 1996, 1997 and 1998 batches who received bachelor and post graduation degrees.

25 injured as police, copy suppliers clash

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sirajganj

At least 25 persons including three policemen were injured in two separate clashes among police and copy suppliers recently.

The clashes occurred at the Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examination centres at Talgachi in Shahjadpur upazila and at Jamtail Dhopakandi Bi-lateral High School in Kamarkhand upazila.

Police and witnesses said the clash took place at Talgachi when the copy suppliers encircled the on-duty policemen leaving at least 15 persons including one policemen injured.

Ten others including two policemen were injured at Jamtail Dhopakandi Bi-lateral High School centre.

On the other hand though the examinations were held peacefully in Sirajganj town, Ullapara and Salanga Madrasa (Rajganj II), but the examinees adopted unfair means at random.

Locals alleged that the on-duty Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) of Ullapra Amit Kumar Baul assisted the examinees in adopting unfair means.

The UNO favoured the students hailing from the influential class and the activists of different political parties. He was tough with the examinees hailing from the poor class.

It is also alleged that the aforementioned UNO gave examinees the opportunity to copy in exchange of a handsome amount of bribe.
