CU 'safe haven' for terrorists, arms smugglers

ATAUL GANI SUMON, Chittagong

The Chittagong University (CU) campus has reportedly become a "safe haven" for terrorists and arms smugglers' syndicates, sources said.

Most of these terrorists and syndicates are operating under political cover of a student organisation that re-established its domination on the campus after the political changeover, sources added.

Those syndicates are using the campus for carrying on their illegal arms trade by selling and renting their firearms to a section of student leaders at the CU and other universities.

Availability of illegal arms and frequent incidents of violence triggered a panicky situation on the campus.

Campus sources said that two major student organisations -- Islami Chhatra Shibir and Bangladesh Chhatra League -- had been in a longdrawn rivalry on this campus while the ruling party backed JCD is enjoying the support of Shibir.

With the easy availability of such arms on the campus activists of the student organisations were found locked in frequent clashes even over trifling matters.

Many terrorists from outside are seen whenever there is an unrest on the campus. Rival groups then openly move with firearms hired for some days, the sources said.

Police raids were launched on several occasions on the campus but very few illegal arms could be recovered as information relating to police drive got somehow leaked out well in advance. In the last 35 years, police recovered only a few firearms from the campus and its adjacent areas.

Sources say that those syndicates reportedly have huge stock of arms. They also made attacks on dormitories several times using firearms and exploding bombs.

Sources said some leaders and workers of student organisations have been selected by the political parties concerned to maintain contact with the illegal arms traders for buying, selling and hiring arms. Taking advantage of this, they have engaged themselves in arms trading and trafficking. As a result, various terrorist groups are also enjoying political support here.

Sophisticated arms are reportedly being supplied to other universities and academic institutions through different routes, sources said.

It is learnt that arms used on the campus are kept in different hideouts, even in female dormitories and also at the residences of a section of local party leaders. But police seem lacking the will to go there to recover those arms.

Kamal Murder Case 2nd PW cross-examined

COURT CORRESPONDENT

Mohammad Mintu, the second prosecution witness in the Kamal Hossain Murder Case, was cross-examined in the First Additional Metropolitan Sessions Judge's Court, Dhaka yesterday.

After an hour-long cross-examination by the lawyers for the accused Jahangir Mohammad Adel, the prime accused in the case, Judge Mohammad Rezaul Islam adjourned the hearing till May 15.

During the cross-examination, Mintu told the court that he was washing his hands and legs at the western side of the Abul Khairat Road under Kotwali thana in the city at about 11.30 pm on August 15 in 2000.

After a while, he heard sound of gunshots and found Zohayed Adel, Tareq Adel, Pappu and Niya firing at the victim Kamal Hossain, Mintu said.

At this, he got fear and left the spot. The following day, he came to know that Kamal died, Mintu told the court.

Meanwhile, three other prosecution witnesses appeared in the court to face cross-examination but the court did not record deposition of the witnesses following a time petition by the defence lawyers.

Kamal Hossain, 30, senior vice-president of ward no 67 unit of Awami League, was shot dead on August 16, 2000, as he protested hoisting of a Pakistani national flag by Zohayed Tareq and others atop the residence of Jahangir Mohammad Adel on August 14, Independence Day of Pakistan.
