Hospital spokesman said.

All-rounder Maurice Odumbe has stepped aside as Kenya's cricket team captain after six years, the Kenya Cricket Association (KCA) selectors' chairman Asif Padamshi said on Tuesday.

Padamshi said batsman Steve Tikolo had been promoted to replace the 33-year-old Odumbe and will lead the Kenya team to the Emerging Nations tournament in Namibia next week.

Odumbe, who is also in the travelling party, said he wanted to spend more time with his wife, who is expecting their first child in May.

He said the pressure of the captaincy had led to his poor form for Kenya and he wanted to concentrate more on the game.

INDIA VS NEW ZEALAND Away in Wellington, India's Davis

Cup tennis team vowed Monday to brave the latest cold snap to numb the New Zealand city.

Wrapped up well against the cold, India will play New Zealand

Captain Ramesh Krishnan said his team had been prepared for a chilly greeting and played down talk that Wellington's weather would be to New Zealand's advantage

"We came prepared and have plenty of tracksuits and the like to

"We know the weather in Wellington can change very quickly but we don't expect any problems on that front," said Krishnan.

"We feel welcome here and the people have been so nice, warm and friendly. We feel like we are at home, even though it's cold." Krishnan's players have come from either India or the United States where temperatures are considerably warmer

New Zealand captain Glenr Wilson said his team would train indoors Tuesday and also downplayed talk of the cold weather being an advantage, although Wellington was deliberately picked as the venue because of its variable weather.

"The tie is obviously outdoors so it's not ideal preparation for either of us, but we can't help the weather," Wilson said.

"We don't want it to be too windy because the tennis just gets too ugly. We want the matches to be good for the spectators and our live television audience, so we hope the conditions improve.

JAPAN VS THAILAND

On the other hand, stifling weather conditions and a partisan crowd will boost Thailand's chances of defeating Japan in an historic Davis Cup encounter that begins later this veek, officials said Monday.

For the first time in Thailand's 44-year Davis Cup history, the kingdom has secured a berth in the second round of the tournament, following its win against Uzbekistan in February's first round.

Cowie comes under fire

AFP, Auckland

New Zealand umpire Doug Cowie came in for sharp criticism Tuesday following an action-packed fourth day in the final New Zealand-England Test here.

The experienced Cowie's 'astonishing' decision to give England's Andy Flintoff out to a catch behind caused an uproar in the pro-English crowd.

Cowie gave Flintoff out even though television replays showed that there was a considerable gulf between the ball and the bat.

Bowler Andre Adams didn't appeal and the English supporters in the crowd howled in disbelief at the subsequent replays on the giant screen at the ground.

Flintoff, who had cracked 29 off 29 balls with five fours and a six had threatened to seize the initiative and stalked away from the crease angrily swinging his bat. England batsman Graham

Thorpe, who was at the other end when Flintoff was given out, was diplomatic when asked his view "I think we all saw it, didn't we?"

Thorpe said.

Asked if he heard a noise that could have fooled Cowie, Thorpe replied: "no."

Cowie also gave Chris Harris not out to Flintoff later when he was on five and replays showed he gloved the ball to wicketkeeper James Foster, before going on to score 43.

Sussex all-rounder Umer Rashid has drowned during a pre-season tour of the West Indies.

Rashid, a 26-year-old former England under-19 international, had been playing for his club in Grenada over the weekend, the county club said on Tuesday.

Sussex said in a statement on their website that Rashid's brother, Burhan, had also died in the incident.
"The club is in a state of shock after hearing of the tragic deaths of Umer Rashid and his brother Burhan," the statement said.

"The two were involved in a drowning accident while on a day off in Grenada during a pre-season tour with Northamptonshire and Yorkshire. "We have no more details of the accident at this time.

"Umer was a great favourite with both staff and supporters alike and had been with Sussex since 1999. "He will be sadly missed as a friend and a colleague and his talent, as a cricketer, was recently summed up by (Sussex captain) Chris Adams, (who said), 'Umer is probably the most naturally gifted player on the staff who is capable of
